Through our organization's community outreach programs and activities, including the Junior Braves/RBI League presented by Delta Air Lines, Play Ball! Atlanta and the Atlanta Braves Youth Baseball Classic presented by Bank of America, we strive to foster the spirit of baseball among our youth.

Military Appreciation

The Atlanta Braves support our troops, veterans and their families in various ways including visits to veterans hospitals and military bases, hosting holiday parties, honoring hometown heroes, and providing Braves tickets. To further demonstrate our commitment and support, the Braves and Emory University launched BraveHeart: Welcome Back Veterans Southeast Initiative to provide veterans of the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan access to mental health and counseling services.

Braves Baseball Academy

Built in partnership with The Villages at Carver Family YMCA, the Braves Baseball Academy is an eight-acre, signature youth sports complex located just minutes from Turner Field. The first-class facility provides a safe and nurturing environment for youth to participate in sports and educational programs. The four baseball fields at the facility were fully constructed through sizeable donations by third baseman Chipper Jones and former Braves John Smoltz, Mike Hampton and Brian Jordan.

Atlanta Braves Foundation

The Atlanta Braves Foundation is the Club's non-profit arm that actively supports community organizations and their programs within the metro Atlanta area. Turner Field - Home of the Braves since 1997.

Terence F. McGuirk

Chairman and CEO

Terence F. McGuirk is chairman and CEO of the Atlanta Braves. He also served as team president from November 2003 to October 2007. In his current capacity, he maintains executive oversight of all aspects of the Braves franchise, including all team operations, Turner Field and representation at Major League Baseball ownership meetings.

McGuirk spent 35 years at Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (TBS), beginning in 1972 as an account executive with WTCG, which later became TBS Superstation. In 1973, he assumed the same role at TBS-owned WRET in Charlotte, N.C. McGuirk returned to Atlanta in 1975 as director of cable relations, where he was instrumental in the launch of TBS Superstation and played a key role in the launch of every Turner network through 2001.

In 1978, McGuirk was named director of special projects for TBS, Inc. and in 1979 was appointed vice president of TBS, Inc. From 1987 to 1991, he served as president of Turner Network Sales and CNN International Sales, Ltd., where he set up the company's international sales operation. He was elected to the TBS, Inc. board of directors in July 1987. Concurrently, McGuirk was president of Turner Sports where, during his tenure, he was instrumental in securing coverage of the Olympics for cable television for the first time and oversaw the resurgence of the winningest team in Major League Baseball, the Atlanta Braves.

As executive vice president, McGuirk served as the company's second in command from 1991 to 1996. When TBS, Inc. merged with Time Warner Inc. in 1996, he succeeded R.E. (Ted) Turner as chairman, president and CEO. He served as chairman and chief executive officer of the company until March 2001. From that point through December 2003, McGuirk was chief executive officer of the company-owned Atlanta sports teams, including the Major League Baseball Braves, the National Basketball Association Hawks and the National Hockey League Thrashers.

McGuirk has served on the board of many cable industry-related groups and the International Olympic Committee's Radio and Television Commission. He was the 1989 recipient of the NCTA Vanguard Award for Young Leadership and was inducted into the fellowship of Cable Television Pioneers at the 1996 NCTA Convention.

A native of Bayshore, N.Y., McGuirk is a graduate of Portsmouth Abbey School and holds a bachelor of arts degree in American history from Middlebury College. McGuirk is the chairman of the Major League Baseball Media Committee and is on the board of the MLB Network. He sits on the board of trustees of The Westminster Schools and the board of directors of Haverty's, Inc., and is a Trustee Emeritus of Piedmont Healthcare. McGuirk was the 2000 recipient of the Anti-Defamation League's Stewart Lewengrub Torch of Liberty Award. In 2006, he received the Governors Award from the southeastern chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences and in 2010 he entered the Cable Hall of Fame.

Terry and his wife, Nancy, live in Atlanta and have four children.

Atlanta Braves Ownership

Liberty Media Corporation officially acquired the Atlanta Braves on May 16, 2007, when Baseball Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig announced that Major League Baseball ownership had approved Turner Broadcasting and Time Warner's sale of the team.

Based in Englewood, Colorado, Liberty Media owns interests in a broad range of electronic retailing, media, communications, sports and entertainment businesses. Liberty's Chairman is John Malone. The following Liberty executives serve on the ANLBC Board: Mark D. Carleton, Gregory B. Maffei, Albert E. Rosenthaler, Christopher W. Shean, Charles Y. Tanabe and Craig Troyer.

Bill Bartholomay

Chairman Emeritus

Bill Bartholomay, named Chairman Emeritus of the Atlanta Braves in November 2003, was previously Chairman of the Board of Directors of the team since its move to Atlanta in 1966. He has witnessed the Braves win 16 division championships (including a record-setting 14 in a row), five National League pennants and one World Series. The Braves won their first division title in 1969, repeated in 1982, won National League pennants in 1991 and 1992, another NL West crown in 1993, a World Championship in 1995, another pennant in 1996 and divisional titles in 1997 and 1998. The team won its fifth National League pennant in 1999 and division titles in each year from 2000 to 2005.

Bartholomay has been involved with the team as a director or owner for 50 years. In 1962, he became Chairman of the Milwaukee Braves and led the group in moving the club to Atlanta in 1966. Prior to his association with the Braves, Bartholomay was a director and shareholder of the Chicago White Sox.

Major League Baseball has recognized Bartholomay's expertise in several areas. He is the Chairman of the Finance Committee for Major League Baseball, the Chairman of the Ownership Committee, and a member of Major League Baseball's Equal Opportunity Committee. He also serves as a member of the Major League Baseball Executive Council, and as a trustee of Major League Baseball Player's Benefit Plan.

In January 1994, the Braves 400 Club honored Bartholomay with its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" award, which is presented to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area." In 2002, Bartholomay was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame.

Although best known for his sports leadership, Bartholomay wears many hats in the business world. He is Vice Chairman of Willis Group Holdings (NYSE). He is a Director or Trustee of many other civic and business organizations and educational institutions throughout the country.

In December 2008, the Braves announced a collaboration with the Trey Duffy Scholarship Foundation to begin in the fall of 2009. The program will make available four college scholarships, up to $10,000 each, for Atlanta Braves employees and their families. The Trey Duffy Scholarship was established in memory of Bartholomay's, grandson Raymond F. Duffy III, known as "Trey." Recipients of the scholarships will exemplify some of the qualities embodied by Trey: a true passion for the Atlanta Braves, a strong commitment to make an impact in the community, solid academics, and a love for the game of baseball.

John Schuerholz

President

Named president of the Atlanta Braves on October 11, 2007, John Schuerholz oversees all operations for the Braves franchise.

Schuerholz served 26 years as a general manager, from 1982 to 2007, including 17 as the Braves' executive vice president and general manager from 1991 to 2007. Schuerholz came to the Braves from the Kansas City Royals in October of 1990, and before his promotion to president, he had the longest tenure with the same organization among all major league GMs.

Under his leadership and guidance, the Braves achieved unprecedented success, compiling the best record in baseball (1,594-1,092; .593) over those 17 seasons from 1991 to 2007. The Braves established an American professional sports record by winning 14 consecutive division titles from 1991 to 2005 (the 1994 season was not played to completion).

The Braves have won five National League pennants, one World Series, several organization of the year awards and have surpassed the 3,000,000 mark in home attendance six times since 1991. By finishing 101-61 in 2003, the Braves reached the century mark in victories for the fifth time in seven seasons and for the sixth time since 1993.

Schuerholz currently serves on the Major League Baseball's Playing Rules Committee and is Co-Chairman of the Commissioner's On-Field Committee.

During his career with Baltimore, Kansas City and Atlanta, Schuerholz has been associated with three World Champions (1966, 1985 and 1995), eight pennant winners and 20 division crowns. In 2004, to honor his nearly 40 years of success at the major league level, Baseball America named him the recipient of the prestigious Lifetime Achievement Award. Atlanta's overall success in 2005 also helped the Braves earn Baseball America's prestigious Organization of the Year award.

Various groups have honored the achievements of the Braves and Schuerholz. The Negro Leagues Baseball Museum recognized John as the National League Executive of the Year with its Andrew "Rube" Foster Award in 2001, 2002 and 2005. The Braves 400 Club bestowed its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" Award, presented to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area" to Schuerholz in February 2000. Baseball America honored the Braves as the most outstanding major league franchise of the past two decades with its 20th Anniversary Award of Excellence in December 2001. As a result of the Braves' 1991 worst-to-first performance, Schuerholz was named the Executive of the Year by UPI, the Boston Writers Association and the Maryland Tops in Sports group, Executive of the Year by the Georgia Securities Association and Georgian of the Year by Georgia Trend Magazine.

When the Braves won the 1995 World Series, Schuerholz achieved a unique distinction - he became the first executive to be general manager of world championship teams in both the American and National leagues. In his 26 years as a general manager with Kansas City and Atlanta, his teams totaled an amazing 2,348 wins.

During Schuerholz's time with Kansas City, the Royals won one World Championship (1985), two American League pennants (1980 and 1985) and six division crowns (1976, 1977, 1978, 1980, 1984 and 1985). Sporting News, in a poll of baseball's general managers, selected Schuerholz as the Major League Executive of the Year in 1985, when Kansas City won the World Series.

As a general manager, Schuerholz proved to be a man of action ever since joining the Braves. An average of 10 new faces appeared on the club's Opening Day roster each year, reflecting offseason transactions and the maturing of farm system products. Almost without exception during the season, Schuerholz annually acquired at least one player who contributed greatly to the Braves' successful run. John Smoltz was the only Braves player who was around for all 14 division titles from 1991 to 2005.

A native of Baltimore, Schuerholz left a job as a junior high school teacher to join the Orioles in 1966. He moved to Kansas City two years later, and as an administrative assistant, was involved in the expansion draft that created the first ever Royals roster. He was named Assistant Farm Director in 1970 and became Farm Director in 1975. He was promoted to director of player procurement and development in 1976 and vice president-player personnel in 1979. The Royals named Schuerholz executive vice president and general manager in October of 1981, when he was 41.

Born October 1, 1940, Schuerholz is a graduate of Towson (MD) University, where he played soccer and baseball. He was an all-conference choice in baseball and was named the school's Athlete of the Year in 1962. He was inducted into Towson's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1973 and currently serves on the school's Board of Visitors. Towson's baseball facility is named John Schuerholz Park.

Schuerholz authored his first book, "Built to Win: Inside Stories and Leadership Strategies from Baseball's Winningest GM," which was released in the spring of 2006.

He and his wife Karen have two children, Gina and Jonathan, and two granddaughters, Camryn Grace and Rylee Elizabeth. Jonathan Schuerholz has been a player or instructor in the Braves' farm system since 2002 and is managing the Danville Braves in 2012.

Henry Aaron

Senior Vice President

Since his retirement from professional baseball, Aaron has given back to society for more than 30 years. His Chasing the Dream Foundation was established to help children between the ages of nine and 12 realize their dreams, as he realized his. The foundation provides grants to children to enable them to pursue advanced study in music, art, writing, dance and sports.

Aaron received the first Jackie Robinson Lifetime Achievement Legacy Award from the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum, honoring his "career excellence in the face of adversity" in February 2003.

At his 65th birthday celebration in Atlanta on February 5, 1999, Aaron was honored for his lifetime achievements both as a player and as a humanitarian. President Bill Clinton, the Commissioner of Baseball, Bud Selig, and Sammy Sosa were among those in attendance as Major League Baseball recognized Aaron's talents with the introduction of the Hank Aaron Award. The award is presented annually to honor the best hitters in the National and American leagues and was unveiled at the 1999 World Series.

Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office on October 7, 1976, for a 13-year tenure as Vice President and Director of Player Development. In that position, he oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back NL MVP awards in 1982-83.

Since December of 1989, he has served as Senior Vice President.

The greatest home run hitter of all time, Aaron was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January of 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for a percentage of .978. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982. In February of 2000, Aaron replaced the late Pee Wee Reese on the Hall of Fame Veterans Committee.

In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron rewrote baseball's hitting record book. He holds more Major League batting records than any other player in the game's history. Some of his records are truly amazing, including Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime (2,297); Most Extra-Base Hits, Lifetime (1,477); and Most Total Bases, Lifetime (6,856). In 2007, Barry Bonds broke Aaron's record for Most Home Runs, Lifetime (755). Aaron also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364), second in multi-hit games (1,125), third in games played (3,298) and hits (3,771), fourth in runs scored (2,174, tied with Babe Ruth), 10th in doubles (624), 12th in singles (2,294) and tied for 16th in years of service (23).

His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before a sellout crowd of 53,775 at Atlanta Stadium. The pitch came in the bottom of the fourth inning, the Los Angeles Dodgers leading 3-1, with a 1-0 count and Darrell Evans waiting on first. Al Downing threw a fastball at 9:07 p.m. that Hank sent over the left field fence. Reliever Tom House caught the ball in the Braves' bullpen and brought it to Aaron in the home plate celebration.

On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HRs and 30 SBs in the same season) in 1963. Aaron played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to Milwaukee for outfielder Dave May and minor leaguer Roger Alexander at the end of 1974. Aaron retired as a player two years later.

Aaron was first scouted by Dewey Griggs of the Milwaukee Braves during an Indianapolis Clowns tryout. The Braves eventually were able to strike a deal and beat out the Giants for Aaron's services. In 1952 he was assigned to the Eau Claire, Wisconsin, team of the Northern League. He was the unanimous choice for the Northern League's Rookie of the Year while only playing in 87 games (.336, 9 HR, 61 RBI, 116 hits and 89 runs). In 1953 he was promoted to the Jacksonville Tars, where he became the first African-American player in the South Atlantic League. Aaron won the batting title (.362) and led the league in RBI (125), runs (115), hits (208) and finished second in home runs (22) and earned the league's MVP award.

He began his Major League career in 1954 when a spring training injury forced Bobby Thompson out of the Braves' lineup. In his debut Aaron struck out twice, grounded out, hit into a double play and fouled out. Aaron hit his first home run off Vic Raschi on April 23, 1954.

He became the second-youngest player to win a batting title (.328) in 1956 and the second-youngest to collect his 1,000th hit, off Sandy Koufax, in 1959. On June 12, 1967, Aaron recorded his 2,500th hit. He achieved his 3,000th hit on May 17, 1970. His 2,000th RBI came on July 3, 1972.

During his career, Aaron had a 20-year string of 20 or more home runs. After turning 35, he hit 245 home runs and from the ages 35 to 39 he hit at least 34 home runs each year. Over his 23-year Major League career, he averaged just 63 strikeouts per season, with his highest strikeout total being 97 in 1967. He hit .300 or better in 14 seasons, won the NL home run crown three times and tied for a fourth, led the league in RBI four times and won three Gold Gloves.

Aaron hit his 755 home runs off 310 different pitchers, including 13 Hall of Famers. He hit the most off of Hall of Famer Don Drysdale (17), the most in the month of July (152), the most against the Cincinnati Reds (97) and the most in the first inning (124). Aaron hit seven as a second baseman. He hit 400 solo home runs and had three pinch-hit homers. He had only one three-homer game, at San Francisco on June 21, 1959.

Aaron serves on the Board of Governors for Boys and Girls Clubs of America. He also serves on the board of the Atlanta Falcons and Medallion Financial Corporation and is on the Board of Advisors for DSW, Inc.

Aaron and his wife, the former Billye Suber, live in Atlanta. They have five children, Gaile, Hank Jr., Lary, Dorinda and Ceci. Aaron was born in Mobile, Alabama, on February 5, 1934.

Frank Wren

Executive Vice President & General Manager

The 2012 season marks Frank Wren's 13th with the Braves and his fifth as the Club's executive vice president and general manager. He was named to his current post on October 11, 2007, when former general manager John Schuerholz became the team president. Wren previously served eight seasons as the Braves' vice president/assistant general manager.

In July 2011, Wren made a five-player trade with the Houston Astros to acquire Gold-Glove outfielder Michael Bourn. Bourn led the majors with 61 stolen bases in 2011 (22 with Atlanta) and has led the National League each of the last three seasons. His total of 215 steals over the four seasons (2008 to 2011) is easily the highest in the majors.

Following the Braves' 2010 playoff appearance as the National League's Wild Card entry, Wren set out to hire the Braves' first new manager in more than 20 years, as the legendary Bobby Cox retired at the end of the season. Wren chose Fredi Gonzalez, a former third base coach on Cox's staff (2003-06) and someone Wren had worked closely with dating back to their days in the Florida Marlins organization in the 1990s.

Shortly after hiring Gonzalez, Wren and his staff made the first big trade of the 2010-11 offseason by acquiring All-Star second baseman Dan Uggla from the Marlins. In January 2011, Uggla inked a five-year contract, giving the Braves the right-handed power they had missed in recent seasons.

During the 2009-10 offseason, Wren signed left-handed closer Billy Wagner and right-handed reliever Takashi Saito to complete the bullpen. Wagner had one of the finest seasons of his career (37 saves, 1.43 ERA) before retiring at the end of the 2010 campaign, while Saito made 56 appearances (2.83 ERA). The Braves' bullpen ranked third in the majors in ERA (3.07), second in opponents' batting average (.221) and third in fewest home runs allowed (34). Wren also added veteran utility man Eric Hinske, who proved to be a clutch performer in 2010, with 11 home runs, including three as a pinch hitter.

Before the 2009 season, Wren revamped and strengthened the Braves' pitching rotation. A November 2008 trade brought right-handed workhorse Javier Vazquez from the Chicago White Sox, while a pair of January free-agent signings brought veteran right-hander Derek Lowe and Japanese right-hander Kenshin Kawakami, the first Japanese-born player signed by the Braves. The moves paid off, as the Braves' pitching staff ERA of 3.57 ranked third in the Major Leagues in 2009 and the starters' ERA of 3.52 led the majors. Braves pitchers allowed an MLB-low 119 home runs on the year and Atlanta's starting pitchers ranked second in the majors with 986 innings pitched.

In his first two months as general manager in 2007, Wren moved quickly to build Atlanta's 2008 roster. His first trade may have been one of the best off-season moves in all of baseball, as the Braves acquired 21-year-old right-handed pitcher Jair Jurrjens and highly-touted minor league outfielder Gorkys Hernandez from the Detroit Tigers in exchange for veteran shortstop Edgar Renteria. November 2007 brought the return of future Hall of Fame pitcher Tom Glavine to a Braves uniform. At baseball's annual Winter Meetings that December, Wren made another important trade, as the Braves acquired left-handed reliever Will Ohman and infielder Omar Infante from the Chicago Cubs in exchange for minor-league pitcher Jose Ascanio. Ohman went on to pitch 83 games that season and Infante became an All-Star in 2010.

After joining the Braves on October 13, 1999, Wren led the organization's efforts in the site selection, design and construction of the Braves Academy in San Pedro de Macoris, Dominican Republic.

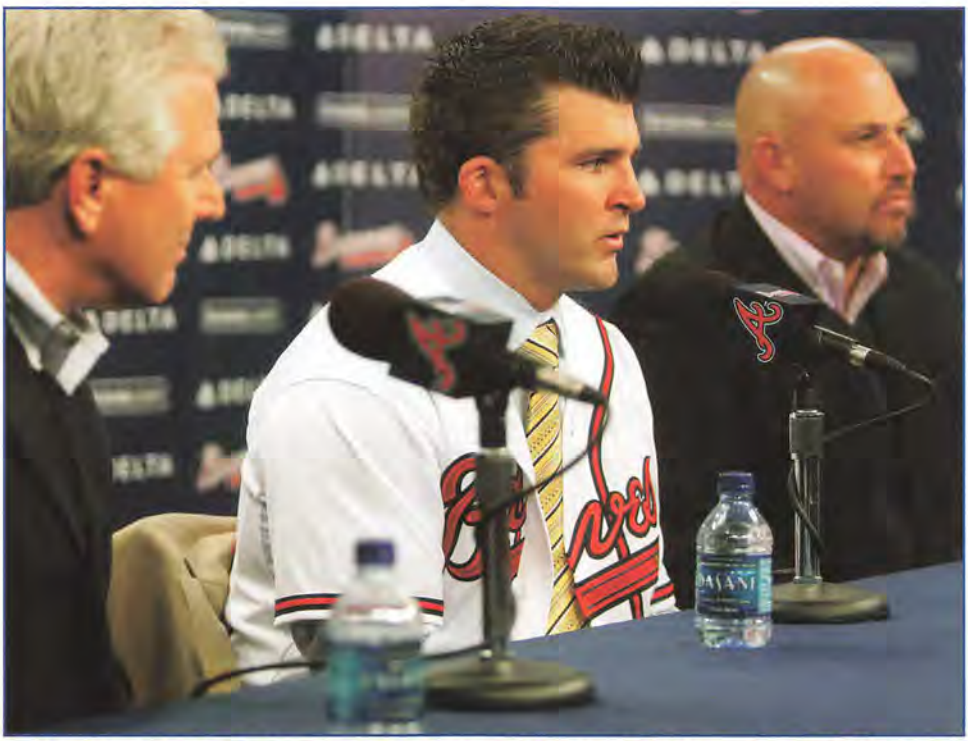
Wren began his front office career as the general manager of the Jamestown Expos of the New York-Penn League in 1985. He then became Montreal's assistant scouting director and, in 1989, was appointed the team's director of Latin American scouting and operations.

Under his direction, the Expos built a new Latin baseball academy in the Dominican Republic. This academy was responsible for much of the talent that led to the Expos' success in the 1990s. The Expos' farm system was twice honored as Baseball America's "Organization of the Year" during Wren's tenure. From 1986 to 1991 the Expos drafted and signed 63 players who eventually played in the major leagues.

Born March 17, 1958, in Hamilton, Ohio, Wren grew up in St. Petersburg, Fla. He attended Northeast High School and St. Petersburg Junior College before beginning his professional baseball career as a center fielder in Montreal's minor league system in 1977. He reached the Double-A level before retiring in 1982 and coached in the Expos' system from 1981 to 1984.

Wren and his wife Terri have three sons: twins Kyle and Colby, who are sophomores on the Georgia Tech baseball team, and Jordan, a junior at Landmark Christian School. They reside in Peachtree City, Ga. He serves on the board of Landmark Christian Schools and he and his wife have hosted the Southwest Christian Hospice - Jim Beauchamp Memorial Golf Tournament since 2008. Frank and Terri are board members of the Foundation of Mitochondrial Medicine, which helps fund research in Mitochondrial diseases. They were the "Honorary Chairs" for the 2011 City of Refuge Gala. The City of Refuge is based in Atlanta's most challenging neighborhood and offers life-saving resources and life-building tools to those in need. Wren was inducted into the Northeast High School Athletic Hall of Fame in January 2009 and the Lakota High School Athletic Hall of Fame in March 2009.



The Braves traded for All-Star second baseman Dan Uggla on November 16, 2010, then signed him to a five-year contract (through 2015) on January 6, 2011.

Bruce Manno

Assistant General Manager/Director of Player Development

Bruce Manno joined the Braves in October 2007 and is in his fifth season as the Club's assistant general manager. In September 2011 he also became the Club's director of player development.

Manno previously spent six seasons with the St. Louis Cardinals organization, most recently in the role of senior director of pro scouting and special assistant to general manager Walt Jocketty. From 2002 to 2006, Manno was the Cardinals' director of player development. The Cardinals reached the postseason four times in Manno's six seasons, including a World Series appearance in 2004 and a World Series Championship in 2006.

Manno and Braves general manager Frank Wren previously worked together at Baltimore in 1999, when Manno served as the assistant general manager for the Orioles. He was a longtime member of the Milwaukee Brewers Scouting and Player Development department, working from 1979 to 1994 with the Brewers. He was named farm director in Milwaukee in 1982 and was appointed as the Brewers assistant general manager in 1987, holding that post through 1994. Under Manno's direction, Milwaukee's farm system captured six "Organization of the Year" awards, three each from Baseball America (1985, 1986 and 1987) and Topps (1987, 1989 and 1991).

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Manno graduated from Benedictine High School in 1971 and majored in journalism at Cleveland's Cuyahoga Community College. He began his professional baseball career in 1977 as the assistant general manager at Utica, NY, in the New York-Penn League.

Manno, 58, resides in Peachtree City, Ga. He has two children, Nick and Amanda, and two grandchildren, Carter and Madelyn.

Fredi Gonzalez is in his second season as the Braves' skipper and his sixth overall as a Major League manager. He owns a career record of 365-352 (.509) after leading the Braves to an 89-73 mark in 2011.

On October 13, 2010, Gonzalez was introduced as the Club's 16th manager since the organization moved to Atlanta in 1966. He replaced the legendary Bobby Cox, who retired from managing at the conclusion of the 2010 season. Gonzalez, was the Braves' third base coach under Cox for four seasons (2003 to 2006) and served as the organization's Triple-A manager at Richmond in 2002.

Gonzalez, 48, served as the manager for the Florida Marlins for three-plus seasons (2007 through June 22, 2010) and went 276-279 with the Marlins, including 34-36 in 2010. He is the all-time winningest manager in Marlins franchise history, surpassing Jack McKeon's 241 career wins.

In 2009, Gonzalez led Florida to an 87-75 record, marking the sixth time in franchise history the club finished above .500. He was named the 2008 Sporting News National League Manager of the Year after guiding the Marlins to an 84-77 record in his second year as skipper, as he became just the third Marlins manager to lead the team to a winning record.

In Gonzalez's debut season in 2007 the Marlins went 71-91 and he served as a coach for the National League at the All-Star Game in San Francisco, under manager Tony La Russa. Gonzalez was named the Marlins' manager on October 3, 2006, replacing Joe Girardi.

Following a six-year (1982-87) playing career as a catcher in the New York Yankees' farm system, Gonzalez began his coaching career in 1990, when he took over as manager of the unaffiliated Miami Miracle (A) of the Florida State League with 20 games remaining on their schedule. He continued his post as manager of the Miracle in 1991, then moved to the Marlins organization in 1992, when he was named the first minor league manager in Marlins franchise history. He led the 1992 Erie (A) club to a 40-37 record en route to the New York-Penn League championship series.

Gonzalez managed for seven seasons in the Marlins organization, from 1992 to 1998, and served as third base coach at the Major League level from 1999 to 2001.

He was selected by Baseball America as the Eastern League Manager of the Year in 1997 and was recognized by Baseball America as the Florida State League Manager of the Year in 1994, after going 78-61 with Brevard County (A) and finishing second to Tampa in the FSL championship series.

In 1993, Gonzalez guided High Desert (A) to an 85-52 mark en route to becoming California League Champions - the first-ever championship by a Marlins' affiliate. He was named Baseball America's California League Manager of the Year in 1993 and received the Carl Barger Player Development Person of the Year Award in 1993.

Gonzalez graduated from Miami's Southridge High School in 1982 and was selected by the Yankees in the 16th round of the 1982 June draft.

Gonzalez is active in fundraising efforts for the Cindy Donald Dreams of Recovery Foundation (www.dreamsofrecovery.org), which helps to create a positive change for those individuals facing the challenges which accompany spinal cord and/or brain injuries.

He and his wife Pamela have a daughter, Gabrielle, and a son, Alex. They reside in Marietta, Ga.

PITCHING COACH 45

The 2012 season marks Roger McDowell's seventh with the Braves and his seventh as a Major League pitching coach.

McDowell guided Atlanta's staff through an especially challenging season in 2011, as the Braves played an Atlanta-era record 26 extra-inning games. The staff logged 54 extra innings on the year, equal to an additional six games on the schedule. The Braves played 84 games which were decided by just one or two runs and through it all they maintained the fourth-best team ERA in the majors, at 3.48. Atlanta's bullpen led the majors with a 3.02 ERA. The team established a franchise mark in innings pitched (1,479.2) and its 1,332 strikeouts set a team record (fifth in Major League history).

Closer Craig Kimbrel registered an amazing season and was honored with the National League Rookie of the Year Award by the Baseball Writers Association of America. Kimbrel garnered an incredible 127 strikeouts in 77 innings pitched (79 games) and posted a 2.10 ERA while shattering the MLB rookie saves record with 46. Reliever Eric O'Flaherty appeared in 78 games and posted an ERA of 0.98 - a Major League record for a pitcher with at least 75 appearances in a season. Jonny Venters led the majors with 85 appearances and had a 1.84 ERA.

In 2010, the Braves' overall staff ERA (3.56) ranked third in the majors. Braves pitchers allowed a Major League-low 126 home runs on the year, including just 92 homers allowed by the starters (tied for fifth in the majors) and just 34 allowed by the relievers (third in the majors). Tim Hudson returned from "Tommy John" surgery and paced the staff with a 17-9 record and a 2.83 ERA to earn the Comeback Player of the Year Award from Major League Baseball. Another bright spot for 2010 was rookie left-hander Jonny Venters, who pitched in 79 games and posted a 1.95 ERA with 93 strikeouts in 83.0 innings pitched.

The Braves' pitching staff ERA of 3.57 ranked third in the majors in 2009, while the starters' ERA of 3.52 led the majors. Braves pitchers allowed an MLB-low 119 home runs, including just 86 allowed by the starters (third in the majors) and 33 allowed by the relievers (best in the majors). Braves starting pitchers ranked second overall with 986 innings pitched (compared to just 886 in 2008 - 27th in the majors) and recorded 784 strikeouts, the fourth-best total in the majors. The Braves staff ranked sixth in all of baseball with 1,232 total strikeouts in 2009. Some individual highlights in 2009 included Jair Jurrjens (2.60) and Javier Vazquez (2.87) finishing third and sixth, respectively, among National League ERA leaders. Rookie Tommy Hanson made his debut in June and posted an 11-4 record and a 2.89 ERA in 21 starts. He finished third in N.L. Rookie of the Year voting and Vazquez ranked second in the N.L. (and fourth in the majors) with 238 strikeouts.

In 2008 the Braves ranked second in the N.L. in earned run average (3.69) at the All-Star break, but injuries took their toll in the second half of the season and Atlanta dipped to 12th in the circuit with an overall ERA of 4.46. The 2007 Braves finished third in the league in ERA (4.11), while the bullpen ERA of 3.54 ranked second in the circuit.

McDowell spent the 2004-05 seasons as the pitching coach for the Dodgers' Triple-A franchise, the Las Vegas 51s, and was the pitching coach for the Class-A South Georgia Waves in 2002-03.

McDowell was one of the game's premier relievers during a 12-year career that spanned from 1985 to 1996 with the Mets, Phillies, Dodgers, Rangers and Orioles. He was a third-round draft pick of the Mets in 1982 and pitched in 723 games in his Major League career, posting a 70-70 record with 159 saves and a 3.30 ERA. In 1986, he was a member of the Mets' World Championship team and posted a 14-9 record with 22 saves in 75 games out of the bullpen.

McDowell graduated from Cincinnati's Colerain High School in 1979 and played for Bowling Green State University. He was inducted into BGSU's athletic Hall of Fame in 1988. He has made television appearances on Seinfeld, America's Funniest People and MTV.

McDowell and his wife Gloria reside in Marietta, Ga., with their daughters Amanda and Rachel. Roger also has a son, Logan.

TERRY PENDLETON

HEIGHT: 5-9 WEIGHT: 200
BORN: 7/16/60 in Los Angeles, California
RESIDES: Duluth, Georgia
SEASONS ON BRAVES COACHING STAFF: 11th

FIRST BASE COACH 9

Terry Pendleton is in his 11th season on the Braves' coaching staff and his second as the Club's first base coach. He previously served as hitting coach nine seasons, from 2002 to 2010. The Braves have compiled 300 doubles in a season nine times in franchise history, including each of the last eight seasons (2003-10) in which Pendleton served as the hitting coach.

In 2010, the Braves led the National League on-base percentage (.339) and doubles (312), and ranked fifth in runs scored (738).

The 2009 Braves ranked fourth in the league in team batting average (.263), fourth in hits (1,459), fifth in on-base percentage (.339) and sixth in runs (735). The team tied for third in the N.L. with 300 doubles.

In 2008, Atlanta ranked third in the N.L. in batting average (.270), third in hits (1,514), third in walks (618), third in on-base percentage (.345) and fourth in doubles (316). Chipper Jones led the majors with a .364 batting average to become the first Brave to win the N.L. batting title since Pendleton himself turned the trick in 1991.

In 2007, Atlanta boasted a high-powered offense under Pendleton's watch, ranking second in the N.L. in hits (1,562), third in runs (810) and fourth in batting average (.275). The Braves established a franchise record with 328 doubles on the year. Chipper Jones (2nd, .337) and Edgar Renteria (4th, .332) both made runs at winning the N.L. batting.

The 2006 campaign was one of Pendleton's most successful as a coach. Despite numerous injuries, the Braves led the N.L. in home runs (222) and slugging percentage (.455) and ranked second in the circuit in runs scored (849) and batting average (.270). The home run total ranked second in franchise history, while the runs total ranked second in Atlanta history.

In 2005, Pendleton was instrumental in outfielder Andruw Jones' MVP-caliber season, as Jones adopted a new batting stance and established a Braves' franchise record with 51 home runs. Pendleton also worked closely with a string of rookies who made huge contributions throughout the season. The 2005 Braves became the first team in history to reach the postseason with six rookies who had 100 or more at-bats (the previous record was four rookies by the 1983 Los Angeles Dodgers and the 1989 Chicago Cubs).

In his second season as Braves' hitting coach in 2003, the team established franchise bests in home runs (235), hits (1,608), doubles (321) and slugging percentage (.475) and had the highest team batting average in Atlanta history (.284). Several individual players enjoyed "career" seasons as well, and much of the credit for those accomplishments went to Pendleton.

Pendleton was named to the Braves staff in November 2001, after enjoying a 15-year Major League playing career. He was selected the N.L. Most Valuable Player in 1991 and was an All-Star third baseman in 1992 while playing for the Braves.

A switch-hitter, Pendleton batted .287 with 71 home runs and 322 RBI in 593 games for Atlanta and .270 with 140 homers and 946 RBI in 1,893 games overall with the St. Louis Cardinals, Braves, Florida Marlins, Cincinnati Reds and Kansas City Royals. He was a three-time recipient of the Rawlings Gold Glove Award (in 1987 and 1989 with St. Louis and in 1992 with Atlanta).

Signed as a free agent in December of 1990 by general manager John Schuerholz, Pendleton played for the Braves from 1991 through 1994 and in part of 1996. He was a key factor in the Braves' turn-around from being the worst team in the major leagues in 1990 to a pennant-winning club the next year.

In 1991 he batted an NL-best .319 with 22 home runs and 86 RBI. He tied for the league lead with 303 total bases, helping him earn the N.L. MVP Award, as well as Comeback Player of the Year honors.

He was voted an All-Star starter in 1992, hitting .296 with 13 home runs and 51 RBI before the break and finishing the year with a .311 average, 21 homers and a career-high 105 RBI to lead the Braves to another pennant. He led the N.L. with a .387 average with runners in scoring position and had a career-best 199 hits, a franchise record for third basemen.

Originally selected by the Cardinals in the seventh round of the 1982 June draft, Pendleton, after his first four seasons with the Braves, signed with the Marlins as a free agent in April 1995. Florida traded him back to Atlanta in exchange for outfielder Roosevelt Brown in August 1996. Pendleton was signed as a free agent by the Reds in January 1997 and the Royals in January 1998. He retired as a player the following December.

Terry and his wife, Catherine, and their three children, Stephanie, Terry and Trinity, reside in Duluth, Ga.

BULLPEN COACH 12

After concluding a 20-year playing career in 2006, Eddie Perez opened a new chapter in his baseball life in 2007. He joined the Braves' coaching staff as the bullpen coach after playing 11 seasons at the major league level, including nine seasons with the Braves.

Perez played 18 of his 20 professional seasons in the Braves organization. The former catcher began his career with Bradenton in 1987 and reached the majors in 1995, the year Atlanta won the World Series. Perez was on seven postseason squads for Atlanta (1995-99, 2001, 2004) and played in 30 postseason games. His .464 (13-for-28) batting average in National League Championship Series competition is the highest ever for a catcher (minimum 25 at-bats). Perez batted .500 (10-for-20) in the 1999 NLCS vs. the New York Mets and claimed series MVP honors.

Perez spent the 2002 season with the Cleveland Indians and played with the Milwaukee Brewers in 2003 before re-joining the Braves in 2004. Right shoulder tendinitis plagued Perez throughout the 2005 season, and he spent the entire 2006 campaign at Double-A Mississippi. He was limited to just 13 games in 2006, but spent much of his time assisting M-Braves Manager Jeff Blauser.

Perez attended Doctor Raul Cuenca High School in Ciudad Ojeda, Venezuela, where he played volleyball and baseball. He and his wife, Marisol, have one daughter, Maried, and one son, Andres Eduardo, and reside in Duluth, Ga.

THIRD BASE COACH 51

The 2012 season marks Brian Snitker's sixth as the Club's third base coach and his 10th overall in three stints on the Braves' major league coaching staff. His two previous stints with the major league staff came as bullpen coach in 1985 and again from 1988 to 1990.

Snitker managed at Triple-A Richmond in 2006 after spending four seasons as the skipper of the Club's Double-A affiliate in Greenville (2002-04) and Mississippi (2005).

Snitker, 56, joined the organization as a player in 1977 and has been with the Braves in a variety of roles ever since. The former catcher spent four seasons as a player. He retired at the conclusion of the 1980 season and began his coaching career as a roving instructor for the Braves in 1981. Snitker took his first managerial job in 1982, with Anderson of the South Atlantic League.

Following a three-year stint with the Major League Club, he returned to minor league coaching in 1991 and moved back into managing in 1992 with Macon. He coached in the Atlanta system from 1993 to '95, and again served as a minor league manager from 1996 to 2006.

In his 17 seasons as a manager, he compiled an overall record of 1,140-1,145 (.499). Five of his clubs advanced to postseason play, and he won two league championships (back-to-back titles with Myrtle Beach in 1999-2000) and two league Manager of the Year Awards (also in the Carolina League in 1999-2000).

An Illinois native, Snitker played college baseball at the University of New Orleans before signing with the Braves as a non-drafted free agent in 1977. Snitker and his wife Veronica reside in Lilburn, Ga., and have two children, Erin and Troy. Troy, a catcher, was drafted by the Braves in the 19th round of the 2011 draft.

BENCH COACH 18

Carlos Tosca is in his second season on the Braves' coaching staff, his 14th campaign on a Major League staff, and his 39th season as a coach. He previously served as the bench coach for manager Fredi Gonzalez at the Florida Marlins from 2007 to 2010. This is Tosca's second stint in the Braves organization, after he served as the manager at Triple-A Richmond in 2001.

Tosca was part of the Arizona Diamondbacks' original coaching staff in 1998, serving as Buck Showalter's bench coach for three seasons. Tosca re-joined the Diamondbacks as third base coach under Bob Melvin in 2005-06.

After managing one year at Richmond, Tosca joined Buck Martinez's staff as the third base coach for the Toronto Blue Jays in 2002. Martinez was dismissed by the Jays on June 3 and Tosca made his managerial debut as the ninth manager in Blue Jays history, taking over the reigns 54 games into the season. He was the fifth native Cuban to manage in Major League Baseball and the sixth in history with no professional playing experience. Tosca won his managerial debut on June 3, 2002, a 6-1 triumph over Tampa Bay. He and his coaching staff were given two-year contract extensions on September 3, 2002. His lone full year at the helm of the Jays was 2003, posting an 86-76 ledger, good for third in the American League East. He was 47-64 through 111 games in 2004 when he was dismissed, finishing his managerial experience north of the border a record of 191-191.

Prior to 1998, Tosca managed in the minor leagues for 17 seasons, amassing an overall record of 932-827 (.530). His clubs had 12 winning seasons during his 17-year minor league managerial career. After leaving the Diamondbacks following the 2000 season, Tosca was named manager of Richmond in the Braves organization, posting a 68-76 ledger. Prior to his first stint with Arizona he was at the helm of Charlotte (AAA) in 1997, putting the Knights in the International League's Governors Cup Playoffs for the first time since 1994. His 1996 Portland (AA) club went 83-58, earning him Eastern League Manager of the Year honors, while also being tabbed by Baseball America as their choice for overall Minor League Manager of the Year. It was the second consecutive division title for the Sea Dogs and the sixth overall first place finish that Tosca had guided during his managerial career. He was named the Carl Barger Player Development Person of the Year in 1995. His first managerial duty was with Gulf Coast League Bradenton (R) in 1980.

After earning a degree in Physical Education from the University of South Florida, Tosca began his coaching career as pitching coach at King High School in 1976. His first professional stint was with Oneonta in 1978.

Tosca has three children: Jessica, Lauren and Matthew. He and his wife Theresa reside in Roswell, Ga.

GREG WALKER

HEIGHT: 6-3 WEIGHT: 220
BORN: 10/6/59 in Douglas, Georgia
RESIDES: Douglas, Georgia
SEASONS ON BRAVES COACHING STAFF: 1st

HITTING COACH 28

Greg Walker is in his first season as the Braves' hitting coach in 2012. He previously served as the hitting coach for the Chicago White Sox for eight-and-a-half seasons, from May 2003 through the 2011 season. He also worked as the hitting coach for Chicago's Triple-A Charlotte affiliate in 2002 and '03.

Since his promotion to the Major League Club in 2003, the White Sox ranked third in the majors in home runs (1,791) and seventh in slugging percentage (.430). The Sox hit 200-plus home runs in seven consecutive seasons from 2000-06, which tied the Major-League record (and was later broken by the Yankees, 2000-07).

In his first full season in 2004, the White Sox hit a franchise-record 242 home runs. In their World Championship season of 2005, the Sox ranked fourth in the American League with 200 home runs, but still led the league in sacrifice hits (53) and bunt hits (37) and ranked third in infield hits (156).

Walker was a member of the American League All-Star coaching staff in 2006, when the Sox led the majors in home runs (236), slugging percentage (.464) and batting average with runners in scoring position (.307), while ranking third in runs scored (868) and fifth in overall batting average (.280). The 2006 Sox also featured four players with 30-or-more home runs, making them just the third team in A.L. history to accomplish that feat.

Under Walker's guidance, the Sox again led the majors in home runs in 2008, with 235.

As a player, Walker posted a .260 career batting average with 113 home runs and 444 RBI in 855 games over a nine-year career (1982-90) with the White Sox and Baltimore Orioles. He was originally drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in 1977 and was later chosen by the White Sox in the Rule 5 Draft in 1979.

Walker made his Major League debut with a pinch-hit single on September 16, 1982. In 1984 he posted a career-high .294 batting average, with 24 home runs and 75 RBI, followed by 24 homers and 92 RBI in 1985. He established career highs of 27 home runs and 94 RBI in 1987.

He led the A.L. in games played (163) in 1985 and annually ranked among the league leaders in fielding percentage by first basemen. On July 30, 1988, he suffered a life-threatening seizure during batting practice and missed the rest of the season. He returned to play in 77 games in 1989.

Walker was the White Sox 1986 nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award and he received the Chicago Baseball Writers' "Good Guy" Award at their January 1990 Diamond Dinner.

Walker is a native of Douglas, Ga., and still makes his home there with his wife Carman. They have three daughters: Kaycee, Leigh Ann and Lauren. He played baseball and football at Coffee High School. He enjoys golf, hunting and fishing.

- Opened the season on the disabled list with a strained right oblique. He was placed on the DL on 4/3 (retroactive to 3/25) and missed 15 team games. His first start of 2011 came 4/16 vs. NYM when he tossed 7.0 shutout innings allowing just two hits in the 4-0 victory.
- Was placed on the DL for a second time on 8/6 (retroactive to 8/2) with a right knee strain. Prior to landing on the DL, went 0-3 with a 6.38 ERA in five starts.
- His last start of the season came on 8/30. He missed the entire month of September with a right knee strain.
- Was selected to his first All-Star game after finishing the first half of the season with a National-League-leading 12 wins and the second-lowest ERA (1.87).
- At the time of his second disabled list stint, ranked eighth in the National League with a 2.71 ERA and his 2.50 nighttime ERA ranked seventh in the majors (third in the National League).
- Went at least 6.0 innings in 18 of his 22 starts, nine of which were at least 7.0 innings.
- In games in which he pitched at least 7.0 innings (nine starts), went a perfect 8-0 with a 1.29 ERA while the team went 9-0.

In 2002, Tom Glavine recorded 11 wins and a 1.53 ERA over his first 15 starts of the season (courtesy Elias Sports Bureau).
- Started the season with 11 "quality starts", the longest such streak by a Braves starting pitcher since Greg Maddux posted 16 in a row to start the 1994 campaign.
- Voted the National League Pitcher of the Month for the month of May. In six May starts, Jurrjens went 5-1 and was tied for the Major-League-lead in wins, his 43.2 innings pitched were the second-most in the NL, while his 1.65 ERA was the second-lowest among NL starters. The award was Jurrjen's second career monthly honor after being voted NL Pitcher of the Month for September 2009.
- His season ERA through his first 11 starts was 1.82. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, only four Braves pitchers (six times) have had a lower ERA over their first 11 starts since the Braves moved to Atlanta in 1966: Phil Niekro in 1967 (1.52), Buzz Capra in 1974 (1.19), Greg Maddux in 1994 (1.47), 1997 (1.57) and in 1995 (1.77) and Tom Glavine in 2002 (1.67).
- Made his ninth start of the season on 5/29 vs. CIN and claimed his seventh win while lowering his season ERA to 1.51. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, only three other pitchers in Major League history have started a season with nine consecutive games of 6+ IP while allowing two-or-fewer earned runs in each game: Lefty Gomez in 1937, Randy Johnson in 2000 and Ubaldo Jimenez (12 games) in 2010.
- Did not allow more than two earned runs in any of his first nine starts this year, posting a 1.51 ERA (11 ER/65.2 IP) along the way.
- Became the first Braves starting pitcher to begin the season 5-0 with a sub-2.00 ERA since Tom Glavine began the 2000 campaign 5-0 with a 1.80 ERA.
- Since the Braves left Boston after the 1952 season, only two other Braves pitchers won at least five of their first six starts in a season, while allowing eight-or-fewer earned runs -- John Smoltz in 1999 and Pascual Perez in 1983. Both Smoltz and Perez were 5-0 with eight earned runs allowed through six starts.

Bobby Cox — Special Assistant to the General Manager

The 2011 season marked a new chapter in Bobby Cox's long and storied baseball career, as he assumed the role of consultant for the Braves. He closed out his 29-year managerial career in 2010, when the Braves went 91-71 and claimed the first National League Wild Card championship in franchise history.

On September 23, 2009, the Braves announced that Cox had agreed to a contract extension for the 2010 season, and Cox himself announced that he would retire from managing at the conclusion of the 2010 campaign. As part of Cox's contract extension, he was given a five-year consulting agreement, from 2011 to 2015, where he will advise and consult in all areas of Baseball Operations, including the Major League Club, spring training, minor league operations and scouting. In addition, Cox will work with the office of the president on special business projects.

Cox spent 29 seasons as a Major League skipper, including 25 seasons in two stints at the helm of the Braves. His 2,504 wins rank fourth all-time and include a franchise-best 2,149 victories with the Braves and 355 with the Toronto Blue Jays. Cox posted an overall career record of 2,504-2001-3 (.556). Cox won his 2,500th game on September 25, 2010, at Washington. The 2010 campaign was his 15th with 90 or more wins, tying him for second all-time in 90-win seasons with Hall of Fame skipper Joe McCarthy (15) and putting him one behind the legendary John McGraw (16). Cox and McCarthy are the only managers in Major League history to compile six 100-win seasons.

Cox won 15 division crowns in his career, including 14 straight in Atlanta that led to five pennants (1991, 1992, 1995, 1996 and 1999) and one World Championship (1995). He had a string of 15 consecutive winning seasons from 1991 to 2005, tying him with Al Lopez and Earl Weaver for third place all-time behind Joe McCarthy (20) and Sparky Anderson (17) for consecutive winning campaigns.

Cox was voted the Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America four times (1985 with Toronto and 1991, 2004 and 2005 with Atlanta). The Sporting News, in a poll of his peers, honored Cox as the league's top skipper seven times with the Braves and eight times overall. No other manager has won the Sporting News award more than three times since the magazine started the balloting in 1936. In 1991 the Associated Press named him Major League Manager of the Year, as he became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985.

After a series of promotions that culminated with being named Director of Scouting and Player Development in 1981, he moved to the Seattle Mariners organization as Vice President of Baseball Operations for four seasons (1985-88). He then joined the Chicago Cubs as Director of Scouting before being named Vice President of Scouting and Player Development in 1990.

2011 Season Recap

International League; South Division, 78-65, 2nd Place, -2.5

The Gwinnett Braves finished the 2011 season just one-and-a-half games short of the International League Wild Card spot, totaling a record of 78-65 and second place in the South Division standings. The G-Braves collected eight International League Player of the Week awards, tied for most in the International League, and boasted the International League Most Valuable Pitcher and Rookie of the Year, RHP Julio Teheran.

Teheran, who made 24 starts for Gwinnett, led the IL with 15 wins, tied for the league lead with a 2.55 ERA, and ranked second in all of Triple-A with a .232 opponents' batting average. Teheran was named the starting pitcher for the 2011 XM MLB All-Star Futures Game and also garnered Atlanta Braves Organizational Pitcher of the Year Honors for his efforts during the 2011 campaign.

Another anchor of the 2011 G-Braves starting rotation was RHP Todd Redmond, who led the staff with 142 strikeouts and finished just behind Teheran with a 2.92 ERA, which was the third-best mark among International League pitchers.

Gwinnett was led offensively by All-Stars OF Stefan Gartrell and INF Mauro Gomez, with Gartrell earning Atlanta Braves Minor League Player of the Year honors for Gwinnett. Gartrell clubbed a team-high, and team record, 26 home runs to go along with 94 RBI. His 94 RBI led the circuit, while his 26 round-trippers ranked second in the IL. Gomez, a two-time International League Player of the Week selection, hit 24 home runs and collected 94 RBI.

Manager - Dave Brundage

The 2012 campaign marks Dave Brundage's sixth with the Braves organization and his sixth at the helm for the Club's Triple-A affiliate Gwinnett Braves (Richmond Braves 2007-08). In his first season (2007) with the club, Brundage led the team to the International League Championship en route to being named the organization's Minor League Manager of the Year. Also in his first season with the organization, he was selected to manage the U.S. team in the 2007 Futures Game.

In 13 seasons as a minor league manager, he has compiled a 1024-946 (.520) record, including a 371-341 (.521) mark with GWI, and has led eight of his clubs to the postseason and three of his clubs to league championships.

Brundage came to the Braves after spending the previous 19 years as a player, coach and manager in the Seattle Mariners organization. In 2006 Brundage managed the Tacoma Rainiers (AAA) and from 2001-05 he managed the San Antonio Missions (AA).

In 2003, Brundage was named Baseball America's Minor League Manager of the Year and he was also tabbed the Texas League Manager of the Year. In 2001, he managed the West Division in the 2001 TL All-Star game.

Originally drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the fourth round of the 1986 draft, Brundage spent a total of seven seasons (Philadelphia, 1986 and Seattle, 1987-1992) in the minor leagues as an outfielder and pitcher before being re-signed by Seattle in 1993 as a player-coach at Calgary. Brundage, 46, resides in Buford, Ga., with his wife, Dameron, son, Beau and twins, Baylor and Barrett.

1948 World Series - Cleveland 4, Boston 2

The Braves, under manager Billy Southworth, won their first National League pennant in 34 years, but lost in the World Series to Lou Boudreau and the Indians. Gene Bearden, a Navy veteran of World War II, was Cleveland's pitching hero. Bob Feller allowed Boston only two hits in the opening game but lost it to Johnny Sain, 1-0. Boston's only other victory was in Game 5, 11-5, as Bob Elliott smashed successive home runs off Feller.

1957 World Series - Milwaukee 4, New York 3

Sensational Lew Burdette had three victories and pitched 24 consecutive scoreless innings to defeat a New York team that was making its eighth Series appearance in nine years under the leadership of Casey Stengel. Warren Spahn was the winning pitcher in Milwaukee's other victory. Eddie Mathews' 10th-inning homer won the fourth game after the famous Nippy Jones shoe polish incident. Burdette started the seventh and final game after Spahn was felled by the flu, and with only two days' rest, pitched a 5-0 shutout.

1958 World Series - New York 4, Milwaukee 3

The Yankees, gaining revenge for their defeat the previous year, carried the Series to seven games and then won one of their greatest triumphs in Series play. They became only the second team in history to come back from a three-games-to-one deficit and win the Fall Classic. Hank Bauer led the Yankees with 10 hits and eight RBI, while pitcher Bob Turley won the fifth game, saved the sixth and won the seventh. Warren Spahn won two games and Lew Burdette one for the Braves.

1991 World Series - Minnesota 4, Atlanta 3

After completing their unprecedented ascents from last place in 1990 to the World Series in 1991, the Braves and Twins staged a Fall Classic epic. Four of the last five games were decided on the final pitch and five by one run, with three games going into extra innings. The Twins captured the first two contests at Minnesota before the Braves roared back by sweeping all three games in Atlanta. Braves' consensus MVP Mark Lemke was the catalyst, as he singled in the game-winning run in Game 3, scored the game-winner in Game 4 and tripled twice in Game 5 on the way to a .417 Series batting average. Lonnie Smith also became the first NL player in Series history to homer in three straight games. The Braves returned to Minnesota needing just one more win, but Kirby Puckett and Series MVP Jack Morris led the Twins to consecutive wins and the championship.

1992 World Series - Toronto 4, Atlanta 2

The Braves literally became "America's Team" as they met the Toronto Blue Jays in the first International World Series, with the Jays claiming the championship in six games. Atlanta suffered four one-run defeats, giving the Braves seven consecutive one-run losses in World Series play (the last three setbacks to the Twins in 1991 were also by one run). The Braves began the Series in positive fashion, beating '91 Series nemesis Jack Morris in the opener, 3-1, behind Damon Berryhill's sixth-inning, three-run homer and complete game, four-hitter by Tom Glavine. Toronto answered back in Game 2 with a comeback 5-4 win, sparked by a ninth-inning, pinch-hit homer by Ed Sprague. The Jays saw the momentum of their comeback win carry over to Toronto, limiting the Braves to a total of four runs over Games 3 and 4, giving the Jays a commanding three-games-to-one lead. Lonnie Smith's grand slam sparked a 7-2 win in Game 5 to keep the Braves' hopes alive. The Series returned to Atlanta, and the Braves were able to tie Game 6 in the bottom of the ninth on an Otis Nixon single, but the Jays prevailed, 4-3 in 11 innings, leaving the Braves as runners-up for the second consecutive year. Deion Sanders starred for the Braves in defeat, hitting .533 (8-for-15) with five stolen bases.

The Braves captured Atlanta's first championship in a major professional sport by defeating 100-game winner Cleveland in six games. Atlanta's pitching held the American League hitting leaders to a .179 batting average. Tom Glavine earned MVP honors as he notched wins in Game 2 and the decisive Game 6, allowing two earned runs and striking out 11 in 14 innings. The Braves captured Game 1 of the series at home, 3-2, behind Greg Maddux's two-hitter, Fred McGriff's homer in his first World Series at-bat and a Rafael Belliard suicide squeeze bunt. In Game 2 Glavine picked up a 4-3 win as catcher Javy Lopez slugged a game-deciding two-run homer. Cleveland took Game 3 at home, 7-6, in 11 innings, with John Smoltz lasting only 2.1 innings. After falling to Atlanta in Game 4, 5-2, behind a fine pitching effort by Steve Avery, the Indians avoided elimination at home by defeating Maddux, 5-4, in Game 5. The Braves won their first World Series in three tries since moving to Atlanta by winning Game 6, 1-0, behind Glavine's superb one-hit, eight-inning performance. David Justice provided the offense with a dramatic right-field home run blast in the sixth inning, and Mark Wohlers nailed down the save, his second of the series. Marquis Grissom collected nine hits in the series, giving him 25 postseason hits (11 Division Series, 5 NLCS), the most ever in a postseason. Grissom hit safely in all 14 postseason contests, the longest streak ever in one postseason. Third baseman Chipper Jones finished the postseason 19-for-53 (.358, 3 HR), setting a major league record for postseason hits by a rookie. Ryan Klesko became the first player ever to homer in three straight World Series road games. It was the third World Championship in the history of the franchise, making the Braves the first team in history to win world titles in three different cities, the '95 Braves joining their predecessors in Boston (1914) and Milwaukee (1957).

All signs pointed towards a second straight World Championship for the Braves as Atlanta captured the first two games in Yankee Stadium, but an inspired New York team rallied to win the last four contests and the title. Andruw Jones became an immediate World Series legend as he homered in his first two at-bats in Game 1 (3-for-4, 2 HR, 5 RBI), leading the Braves to a 12-1 triumph. Oakland's Gene Tenace (1972) is the only other player to perform that feat. At 19 years, 6 months and 28 days, Jones became the youngest player ever to homer in a Fall Classic. Greg Maddux shut down the Yankees in Game 2, 4-0, allowing only six hits and no walks in 8.0 innings. Of the 24 outs recorded by Maddux, two were strikeouts and 21 others came on ground balls. Fred McGriff had three RBI in Game 2, after getting two in Game 1, to give him 15 RBI for the postseason, a new major league mark. He finished with 16 RBI in the postseason. Including the final three victories over the Cardinals in the LCS, Atlanta had outscored its opponents, 48-2, in its last five games. In Atlanta, the Yankees' Bernie Williams broke a 1-1 tie with a two-run homer in the eighth inning of Game 3, leading New York to a 5-2 win. In Game 4, the Braves held a 6-0 lead entering the 6th inning, but three in half. Still, the Braves held a 6-3 lead in the eighth, when New York's Jim Leyritz reached Mark Wohlers for a three-run homer to tie the game at 6-6. Two 10th-inning runs by the Yankees proved decisive, and the Series was knotted at two games each after the longest game by time (4 hours, 17 minutes) in World Series history. The final game ever played in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium saw New York's Andy Pettitte outduel John Smoltz 1-0 in Game 5, with the only score coming on a fourth-inning unearned run. The Series returned to New York, where the Yankees wrapped up the championship by tagging Maddux for three runs in the third in their 3-2 victory. The Braves lost the Series despite standout performances by their top three starting pitchers (Smoltz: 0.64 ERA; Maddux: 1.72 ERA; Glavine: 1.29 ERA), and individual heroics on offense by Marquis Grissom (.444 BA) and Andruw Jones (.400 BA).

In a rematch of the 1996 World Series, the Braves were held to just nine runs in a four-game sweep by the Yankees. Greg Maddux carried a 1-0 lead into the eighth inning of Game 1, thanks to a Chipper Jones homer in the fourth, but the Yankees parlayed three hits, three walks and two errors into four runs for a 4-1 victory. Jones' homer was Atlanta's only hit in the contest until Bret Boone's ninth-inning single. After the offense's two-hit performance in Game 1, manager Bobby Cox shook up the lineup, inserting Ozzie Guillen, Keith Lockhart and Greg Myers, but were held scoreless until the ninth inning of a 7-2 loss. Kevin Millwood was tagged for five runs (four ER) on eight hits in only 2.0 IP, marking his shortest outing of the season. A change of venue initially aided the offense in Game 3 at New York, as Bret Boone stroked three doubles in the first four innings to lead the Braves to a 5-1 lead. A flu-weakened Tom Glavine allowed solo homers to Chad Curtis in the fifth and Tino Martinez in the seventh to narrow Atlanta's lead to 5-3, before the Yankees tied the score at 5-5 in the eighth on a two-run homer by Chuck Knoblauch, knocking Glavine out of the game. A scoreless ninth sent the contest into extra frames, with Curtis striking again, this time belting a leadoff homer off Mike Remlinger to give the Yankees their third straight win. The Braves, despite collecting 14 hits, were blanked over the final six innings. In Game 4, Roger Clemens shutout Atlanta over the first seven innings and the Yankees' three-run third proved decisive in the 4-1 finale. John Smoltz provided a stellar effort (7.0 IP, 5 H, 3 R, 3 BB, 11 K), but couldn't prevent the Braves' eighth straight loss in the World Series, dating back to Game 3 of the 1996 Fall Classic.

1991 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, Pittsburgh 3

Led by the sensational pitching of Steve Avery and John Smoltz, Atlanta overcame a three-games-to-two deficit on the road and won its first-ever National League pennant. Avery landed MVP honors after setting an NLCS record with 16.1 scoreless innings while winning 1-0 decisions in Games 2 and 6; Smoltz fired a six-hit shutout in Game 7 in the Braves' 4-0 clincher. In the best pitching exhibition ever seen in NLCS play, Braves' hurlers held the Pirates scoreless the last 22 innings of the series, and the last 27 innings at Pittsburgh, on the way to a 1.57 series ERA against the league's top offense.

Series MVP John Smoltz allowed one run on four hits over 8.0 innings in a 5-1 Braves win in the opener, and Ron Gant's grand slam highlighted a 13-5 pounding of the Pirates in Game 2. The Bucs captured Game 3, 3-2 behind Tim Wakefield's knuckleball, but Smoltz and the Braves won Game 4, 6-4. Pittsburgh evened the playoffs at three games each with 7-1 and 13-4 wins in the next two games, respectively, to set the stage for Game 7 drama. Francisco Cabrera's pinch-hit, two-out single in the bottom of the ninth scored the tying and winning runs in the Braves' miraculous 3-2 win. With their improbable ninth-inning comeback, climaxed by Cabrera's hit and Sid Bream's slide home, the Braves made history, becoming the first Major League team to win a decisive postseason game while trailing before the final pitch.

1993 League Championship Series - Philadelphia 4, Atlanta 2

The Braves saw their two-year reign as National League champions come to an end when the Phillies prevailed in a six-game series. Atlanta rebounded from losing the opener and scored 23 runs over the next two games to take a two-games-to-one advantage. Danny Jackson outdueled John Smoltz in Game 4 to even the series at two games each. In Game 5, the Braves scored three runs in the bottom of the ninth to tie the contest, but Phillies' outfielder Lenny Dykstra hit a 10th-inning homer that gave the Phillies the victory and a one game lead as the series returned to Philadelphia. Atlanta's hopes for a seventh game were dashed in the first inning of Game 6, when Greg Maddux was hobbled after being struck by a Mickey Morandini line drive. The Phillies won the pennant with a 6-3 victory in Game 6. Fred McGriff led the Braves with a .435 series batting average.

1995 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, Cincinnati 0

The Braves returned to the World Series for the third time in the last four Fall Classics by sweeping the Reds with the first four-game sweep in NLCS history. Atlanta won Game 1 at Cincinnati in 11 innings, 2-1, after rallying to tie the game in the top of the ninth. Series MVP Mike Devereaux, an August acquisition from the Chicago White Sox, provided the game-winning single in the 11th. Game 2 also was forced into extra frames as the Braves prevailed in 10, 6-2. Javy Lopez provided the finishing touches with a three-run home run in the 10th. Back in Atlanta, Greg Maddux held the Reds to one run over eight innings on the way to a 5-2 victory in Game 3. Rookie sensation Chipper Jones went 3-for-4 with a home run and two RBI, and catcher Charlie O'Brien also added a three-run homer. Starting pitcher Steve Avery nailed down the sweep in Game 4 by leading the Braves to a 6-0 shutout. Avery became the first pitcher in NLCS annals to start three shutouts (also Games 3 and 6 in 1991). Devereaux, forced into the starting lineup after an ailing knee sidelined right fielder David Justice, hit a three-run homer in the seventh inning.

1996 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, St. Louis 3

The Braves added another chapter to their postseason saga by becoming the first NL team to rebound from a three-games-to-one deficit in the LCS, as they crushed the Cardinals 32-1 over the final three games. Game 1 saw Javy Lopez break a tie in the eighth with a bases-loaded, two-run single, giving the Braves a 4-2 win behind John Smoltz. Chipper Jones led the attack by going 4-for-4, and Mark Wohlers recorded his fourth save in four appearances in the '96 postseason. The momentum in the series shifted in Game 2 when Gary Gaetti's seventh-inning grand slam off Greg Maddux turned a 4-3 Cards' lead into an 8-3 victory. In Game 3, Ron Gant homered twice to account for all the Cards' runs in a 3-2 win. Atlanta seemed to be in control in Game 4, leading 3-0 behind Denny Neagle with two outs and no one on in the St. Louis seventh, but the Redbirds fought back to tie the score, then claimed the lead for good in the eighth on a solo shot by Brian Jordan. With their backs to the wall in Game 5, the Braves struck for five first-inning runs in a 14-0 win, sending the series back to Atlanta. Lopez went 4-for-5 with two doubles and a homer, while Mark Lemke added four hits and Fred McGriff homered in the club's LCS-record 22-hit attack. In Game 6, Maddux blanked the Cardinals through seven innings en route to a 3-1 win. Mark Wohlers' eighth-inning wild pitch accounted for the only Cardinals run in the last three games. In Game 7 the outcome was never in doubt after the Braves scored six in the first, capped by Tom Glavine's three-run triple past a diving Gant. The 15-0 rout broke the Braves' own LCS record for runs in a game and sent Atlanta to its fourth World Series in the last five played. Lopez won MVP honors, batting .542 (13-for-24) with five doubles, two HRs and six RBI.

1997 League Championship Series - Florida 4, Atlanta 2

The Braves, appearing in a record sixth straight LCS, were denied their third straight World Series berth when the Florida Marlins upended Atlanta in six games. Atlanta lost the series despite outhitting Florida .253 to .199. Greg Maddux, who allowed only one unearned run all season, took the loss in Game 1 when the Marlins reached him for five runs, all unearned, in a 5-3 loss. Tom Glavine combined with Mike Cather and Mark Wohlers to hold the Marlins to three hits in a 7-1 victory in Game 2, as Ryan Klesko and Chipper Jones both homered to lead the Braves' 13-hit attack. With the series shifting to Miami, the Marlins took a two-games-to-one advantage with a 5-2 triumph in Game 3, as Charles Johnson broke a 2-2 tie with a three-run double off John Smoltz in the sixth inning. Game 4 saw Denny Neagle blank the Marlins on four hits, 4-0, enabling the Braves to even the series 2-2. Combined with his 3.0 scoreless innings in relief in Game 1, Neagle pitched 12.0 innings of shutout ball in the NLCS, allowing only five hits. Livan Hernandez gave the Marlins the upper hand with a complete-game, 2-1 victory in Game 5, allowing only three hits and notching a NLCS-record 15 strikeouts. The Marlins won the pennant when the series returned to Atlanta by taking a 7-4 decision in Game 6, sparked by a four-run first inning against Glavine. Keith Lockhart led the Braves by hitting .500 (8-for-16).

Atlanta fought back from a three-games-to-none deficit, but fell short of an unprecedented comeback as the Padres prevailed in six games. The Braves entered the bottom of the ninth of Game 1 trailing 2-1, before tying the game against star closer Trevor Hoffman on Andruw Jones' sacrifice fly. Ken Caminiti responded in the top of the 10th with a solo shot off Kerry Ligtenberg, giving the Padres a 3-2 victory. Kevin Brown gave the Padres a spectacular effort in Game 2, holding the Braves to three singles in a 3-0 triumph, marking the first time since 1969 the Braves had dropped the first two games of an NLCS at home. Atlanta's offense didn't benefit immediately with the change of scenery as the series moved west, with San Diego taking a commanding lead with a 4-1 victory over a Braves squad that had managed only three runs over the first 28 innings of the series. Clutch hitting remained elusive, with the Braves loading the bases three times in Game 3 without managing to score in any of those opportunities. Atlanta appeared to be on the verge of being swept in Game 4 when, trailing 3-2 in the seventh inning, the offense finally awoke with a six-run outburst, with an Andres Galarraga grand slam capping the 8-3 win. The Braves repeated late-inning heroics in the eighth inning of Game 5 when Michael Tucker erased a 4-2 deficit with a three-run homer off Kevin Brown, who was appearing in a rare relief role for the Padres. Atlanta took a three-run lead into the bottom of the ninth, but a two-run homer by Padres' pinch-hitter Greg Myers sliced the margin to a single run. Greg Maddux came out to make his first relief appearance since 1987 and set the Padres down in order to register his first professional save. Upon return of the series to Atlanta, the offense once again went dormant, as LCS MVP Sterling Hitchcock and four relievers stopped the Braves in Game 6 on two hits, 5-0. All the runs crossed the plate in the sixth inning, as Tom Glavine was victimized by three unearned runs. Failure to produce any type of offense at home sealed the Braves' fate, with the team being held to two runs in 28 innings at Turner Field. Padres hurlers held the Braves scoreless over the final 19 frames of the series.

1999 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, New York 2

The Braves clinched their fifth NL pennant of the 1990s with an 11-inning, 10-9 triumph over the Mets in Game 6 in Atlanta. It concluded a thrilling series that first saw Atlanta come within four outs of a four-game sweep and would later see New York draw to within three outs of forcing a seventh game. Game 1 proved to be the only contest not decided by one run, with Greg Maddux (7.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 2 K) picking up the 4-2 victory and John Rocker recording the save. In Game 2, Brian Jordan and Eddie Perez blasted two-run homers in the bottom of the sixth to turn a 2-0 deficit into a 4-2 lead that the Braves would never relinquish. Kevin Millwood supplied another strong effort (7.1 IP, 5 H, 3 R, 2 ER, 1 BB, 4 K), with Rocker coming on to douse an eighth-inning fire after the Mets posted an unearned run to make the score 4-3. With the tying run on second and one out, Rocker fanned John Olerud and Robin Ventura (sandwiching an intentional walk to Mike Piazza), and gave way in the ninth to John Smoltz, who fired a 1-2-3 frame to notch the save in his first major league relief outing. After the LCS shifted to New York, the Braves scored an unearned run in the first inning of Game 3, and watched Tom Glavine (7.0 IP, 7 H, 0 R, 1 BB, 8 K), Mike Remlinger and Rocker make it stand up in a 1-0 victory that gave the Braves a commanding three-game lead in the series. Game 4 saw the Braves carry a 2-1 lead into the bottom of the eighth, but Olerud's two-out, two-run single plated the tying and go-ahead runs, spoiling a superb outing by Smoltz (ND, 7.1 IP, 4 H, 2 R, 2 ER, 0 BB, 7 K). The Mets sent the series back to Atlanta after prevailing in a 15-inning marathon in Game 5, 4-3, which entered the record books as the longest game in terms of time in major league post-season history. The Braves took a 3-2 lead in the top of the 15th on a two-out RBI triple by Keith Lockhart, but saw the Mets — who hadn't scored since a two-run homer by Olerud in the first — rally for two runs in the bottom of the frame on a bases-loaded walk to Todd Pratt and a Ventura drive over the right field fence that was ruled an RBI single when he left the basepaths. It appeared as if the Braves had finally put the Mets away with a five-run first inning when the series returned to Atlanta for Game 6, but New York battled back to knot the score at 7-7 on a two-run Piazza blast in the seventh off reliever Smoltz, and took the lead in the top of the eighth on a Melvin Mora pinch-hit RBI single. A Brian Hunter run-scoring single in the bottom of the inning tied the score again at 8-8. The contest carried into extra innings, with Todd Pratt's sacrifice fly in the 10th putting the Mets within three outs of a seventh game. Ozzie Guillen responded in the bottom of the 10th with an RBI single off Armando Benitez, against whom the Braves were 1-for-30 all year before the 10th-inning rally, making it a 9-9 contest. The Braves finally settled the issue in the bottom of the 11th when Andruw Jones worked a bases-loaded walk off reliever Kenny Rogers, sending Atlanta to its fifth World Series of the 1990s. Eddie Perez earned MVP honors after batting .500 (10-for-20) with two homers and five RBI.

2001 League Championship Series - Arizona 4, Atlanta 1

The Braves, appearing in their record 11th NLCS, were unable to solve the Diamondbacks' vaunted one-two tandem of Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling, as Arizona captured its first pennant in a 4-1 series victory. The Braves managed only three hits in a 2-0 Johnson shutout in the opener at Phoenix, but did salvage a split of the first two road games as Javy Lopez's two-run homer in the seventh snapped a 1-1 tie, with Atlanta going on to an 8-1 win in Game 2. Tom Glavine (7.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 2 BB, 2 K) notched the Braves only win of the series. Schilling turned in a dominating effort in the Diamondbacks' 5-1 victory in Game 3 in Atlanta, limiting the Braves to four hits in a complete game effort, while striking out 12. The Braves took a 2-0 lead through two innings as they attempted to even the series in Game 4, but three Atlanta errors aided a four-run D-Back third, giving them a lead they never relinquished in an 11-4 win and a commanding three-games-to-one lead in the series. The Braves committed four miscues overall, leading to six unearned Arizona runs. Arizona completed the three-game sweep in Atlanta and advanced to the World Series with a 3-2 triumph in Game 5, with the D-Backs again capitalizing on a Braves error to tally two unearned runs in the fifth inning that proved to be decisive. While not as effective as in his Game 1 shutout, Johnson still held the Braves to two runs over seven innings, giving him a 1.13 ERA in two starts in the series (16.0 IP, 2 ER, 19 K).

Braves In The Division Series

1995 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Colorado 1

In the first year of the expanded-playoff format, the Braves drew wild-card entry Colorado in the best-of-five-series. The series opened at Coors Field in dramatic fashion as the Braves won 5-4. Rookie Chipper Jones swatted his second homer of the game in the ninth inning to give the Braves the lead, and Alejandro Pena and Mark Wohlers held it after the Rockies loaded the bases in the bottom of the ninth with one out. Atlanta staged another rally in Game 2, prevailing 7-4, after trailing 4-3 in the ninth. Marquis Grissom hit two homers in the contest, his second and third of the series. In Atlanta, the Rockies avoided the sweep by hammering two homers and nine hits on the way to a 7-5 win in Game 3. Greg Maddux, Grissom and Fred McGriff led the Braves to a 10-4 victory in Game 4, sending the team to its third straight NLCS appearance. Grissom collected five hits in the finale, setting a franchise record for postseason hits in a game. Fred McGriff hit two homers in the contest.

1996 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Los Angeles 0

Despite hitting only .180 and being held to 10 runs, the Braves swept the Dodgers in three games, as the staff allowed only three earned runs in 28.0 IP (0.96 ERA). Game 1 in LA saw the Braves continue their tradition of one-run postseason games, as Javy Lopez's 10th-inning homer lifted the team to a 2-1 victory. John Smoltz earned the win, while Mark Wohlers pitched a scoreless 10th inning for the save. In Game 2, Fred McGriff's lead-off HR in the seventh tied the game at 2-2 and, one out later, Jermaine Dye hit another roundtripper to account for the games' final run. Greg Maddux allowed only two unearned runs in 7.0 IP to earn the win, and Wohlers recorded his second save in two games, as the Braves headed back to Atlanta with a two-games-to-none lead. Atlanta completed the sweep as Tom Glavine and Chipper Jones (two-run homer) led the Braves to a 5-2 triumph. Jones' blast followed a two-run double by Mark Lemke, capped a four-run fourth inning, and knocked out Dodgers starter Hideo Nomo.

1997 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Houston 0

The Braves registered their second consecutive Division Series sweep, taking three straight from the Astros. Atlanta never trailed in the series, outscoring Houston, 19-5. Game 1 saw a vintage performance by Greg Maddux in a 2-1 victory, the decisive run coming on a homer by Ryan Klesko in the second inning. The Braves cruised to an easy 13-5 win in Game 2, as the offense broke a 3-3 tie with three runs in the fifth and five more in the sixth. In addition to collecting 10 hits in the contest, the Braves also received 10 walks, including eight issued by starter Mike Hampton. The Braves applied the knockout blow to the Astros in Game 3 at Houston, as John Smoltz went the distance in a dominating three-hitter, taking a 4-1 decision. Braves starters Maddux, Glavine and Smoltz combined for a 1.87 series ERA (3 ER in 24.0 IP).

1998 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Chicago 0

For the third straight season, the Braves recorded a sweep in the Division Series, this time over the Cubs. Dating back to the final game of the 1995 first-round series vs. the Rockies, the Braves had posted 10 straight wins in Division Series competition. Michael Tucker's two-run homer proved to be all the support needed by John Smoltz in Game 1, as the Braves cruised to a 7-1 victory. Ryan Klesko's seventh-inning grand slam accounted for Atlanta's final four tallies. Game 2 featured a classic pitching duel between Tom Glavine and Kevin Tapani, with the Cubs clinging to a 1-0 lead entering the bottom of the ninth. Javy Lopez then blasted a one-out homer, sending the contest into extra innings. In the bottom of the 10th, Chipper Jones delivered a one-out single to plate the winning run and send the Braves to Chicago with a 2-0 series lead. Former Cub Greg Maddux and rookie phenom Kerry Wood faced off in Game 3. Maddux, who led off the third with a double and came around to score on a passed ball, clung to a 1-0 lead through seven innings. The Braves put the game out of reach with a five-run eighth, highlighted by an Eddie Perez grand slam. The Cubs touched Maddux for two runs in the eighth, but Kerry Ligtenberg pitched two scoreless innings and sent the Braves to their record seventh straight NLCS.

1999 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Houston 1

The Braves rebounded from a 6-1 loss in Game 1 to take three straight from the Astros and advance to their record eighth straight NLCS. Atlanta's offense managed only one run on seven hits in the opener in Atlanta, with Greg Maddux absorbing the defeat. Kevin Millwood stepped up in Game 2 and turned in a masterpiece, hurling the fifth one-hitter in postseason history as the Braves evened the series with a 5-1 victory. Millwood allowed only a second-inning homer to Ken Caminiti. Eddie Perez plated the go-ahead run with a sixth-inning sacrifice fly. The series shifted to Houston, where the two clubs put on an extra-inning postseason classic in Game 3. Atlanta escaped with a 5-3 victory as Brian Jordan supplied all five runs, courtesy of a three-run, sixth-inning homer (erasing a 2-0 deficit), followed by a two-run double in the 12th. With the score tied 3-3 in the bottom of the 10th, the Astros loaded the bases with no one out, only to see John Rocker come in and slam the door, with stellar support from shortstop Walt Weiss. Weiss saved the Braves with a diving stop of a one-out Tony Eusebio liner up the middle, which resulted in a force at home, followed by a Rocker strikeout of Ricky Guiterrez to end the frame. After Jordan's go-ahead double in the 12th, Kevin Millwood was brought in from the bullpen and registered the save with a 1-2-3 inning. Braves appeared to have the series sewed up thanks to a five-run sixth in Game 4, giving Atlanta a 7-0 lead, only to see Houston storm back to narrow the Braves' lead to 7-5 in the eighth, with Caminiti striking the big blow with a three-run homer. A leadoff walk to Stan Javier in the bottom of the ninth again brought the tying run to the plate, but Rocker fanned Jeff Bagwell and Carl Everett, before Andruw Jones ran down a Caminiti blast to the warning track to end the series.

2000 Division Series - St. Louis 3, Atlanta 0

The Cardinals jumped on Braves' starters Greg Maddux, Tom Glavine and Kevin Millwood and cruised to a three-game sweep of the Braves, who had won five straight Division Series entering this one. The Redbirds set the tone for the series in the bottom of the first of Game 1, striking for six runs off Maddux, although a Chipper Jones error accounted for two of those tallies being unearned. Cardinals starter Rick Ankiel's bout of wildness (four walks, five wild pitches) contributed to the Braves' four-run rally in the third inning, narrowing the deficit to 6-4. Four Cardinal relievers held the Braves in check thereafter, however, allowing only a ninth-inning run as St. Louis claimed a 7-5 victory. In Game 2, the Braves scored two runs in the top of the first, but Will Clark's three-run homer in the bottom of the frame quickly erased the Braves' only lead of the series. Tom Glavine was tagged for seven earned runs in 2.1 IP, the second-shortest postseason outing of his career as the Cardinals took a 10-4 decision. The change of venue didn't help the Braves, as Fernando Vina opened Game 3 in Atlanta with a leadoff homer off Kevin Millwood and the Cardinals went on to complete a sweep of the series with a 7-1 victory.

2001 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Houston 0

The Braves, appearing in the Division Series for the seventh straight year, took three in a row from the Astros to advance to their record 11th NLCS. Atlanta's pitching was dominant in the sweep, with the staff compiling a 1.67 ERA. Greg Maddux kept the Astros at bay in hitter-friendly Enron Field in Game 1, only to see Houston maintain a 3-2 lead heading into the eighth inning. Keith Lockhart's leadoff pinch-hit double was followed by a Marcus Giles single to even the score at 3-3, and two batters later, Chipper Jones deposited Astros closer Billy Wagner's first pitch into the left field seats for the decisive three-run homer in an eventual 7-4 win. Tom Glavine starred in Game 2, blanking the Astros over 8.0 innings and making an unearned Braves run in the second inning stand up for a 1-0 win, with John Smoltz recording the save. Home runs by Paul Bako and Julio Franco provided Atlanta with three runs over the first three innings and John Burkett teamed with four relievers to shut down Houston's high-powered offense en route to a 6-2 victory in Game 3. Chipper Jones finished the series with a .444 average, including two homers and five RBI, while Andruw Jones went 6-for-12 with a solo home run.

2002 Division Series - San Francisco 3, Atlanta 2

The Braves took a two-games-to-one lead in their record eighth straight Division Series, only to see the Giants rebound to capture the final two contests and the series. Atlanta faced an 8-2 deficit in Game 1, and after a three-run rally in the bottom of the seventh, went on to bring the tying run to the plate with two men aboard and no outs in the ninth. Giants closer Robb Nen, however, squelched the uprising by retiring Julio Franco on a liner to right and inducing a game-ending double play from Gary Sheffield. In Game 2, back-to-back homers by Javy Lopez and Vinny Castilla sparked a three-run second inning, and Kevin Millwood combined with three relievers to make the lead stand up for a 7-3 Braves win, evening the NLDS at a game apiece. The series moved to San Francisco for Game 3, in which the Braves snapped a 1-1 tie with a five-run sixth, courtesy of a bases-loaded single by Vinny Castilla, and a three-run homer on the next pitch by Keith Lockhart en route to a 10-2 win. Needing one more win to clinch the series, the Braves sent Tom Glavine to the mound in Game 4, but the Giants tagged Glavine for the second time in the series, sending the series to a fifth and final game in Atlanta. A second-inning solo homer by former Brave Reggie Sanders and a fourth-inning blast by Barry Bonds proved to be decisive, as Russ Ortiz and four Giants relievers stymied the Braves offense in a 3-1 clincher. Atlanta put runners on first and third in the bottom of the ninth with no outs against Nen, but saw him escape by fanning Sheffield and inducing Chipper Jones to hit into a game-ending double play.

The Braves, in their ninth straight Division Series, matched up with the Chicago Cubs in a back-and-forth five-game series that ended with the Cubs taking Game 5 at Turner Field to send them to the NLCS. Chicago's pitching tandem of Kerry Wood and Mark Prior were the story. In Game 1, Wood took over. In addition to a dominating performance on the mound, Wood broke the game open with his two-run sixth-inning double to lead the Cubs to a 4-2 win in front of 52,043 in Atlanta. Russ Ortiz struggled, especially in the sixth when Moises Alou, Aramis Ramirez and Eric Karros led off with three straight singles. Robert Fick then bobbled a potential double play ball off the bat of Paul Bako, allowing Alou to score and setting the stage for Wood. The Braves scored first in the third inning on a Marcus Giles two-out homer and in the eighth on a Chipper Jones' ground out. The Braves rebounded to take Game 2, 5-3, on Mark DeRosa's eighth-inning two-out, two-run double off Dave Veres after John Smoltz allowed a rare run in the top of the inning that tied the game at 3-3. DeRosa was in the lineup after Giles suffered a severely bruised left quadriceps in Game 1. Giles still contributed when he limped off the bench and delivered a pinch-hit, two-out single in the sixth inning that scored Javy Lopez and gave the Braves a 3-2 lead after they had fallen behind, 2-0, in the top of the first. After walking the first two batters of the game and giving up a two-run Sammy Sosa double off the top of the center-field wall, Atlanta starter Mike Hampton battled out of a no-out, bases-loaded jam by striking out three straight Cubs to end the inning. He fanned all three batters in the second inning to match a postseason record of six consecutive strikeouts. Carlos Zambrano started for Chicago and allowed 11 hits, all singles, including a two-run single to Andruw Jones in the fourth inning that tied the score at 2-2. As the teams moved to an electric Wrigley Field for Game 3, the Cubs once again took the series lead with a 3-1 victory. Mark Prior battled in a classic pitchers' duel with Greg Maddux. The only Chicago runs came on a Randall Simon two-out, first-inning single off Maddux that scored Kenny Lofton and Mark Grudzielanek. The Braves' only run came on a Giles sacrifice fly scoring Mark DeRosa in the eighth inning. Game 4 was the first true glimpse of the Braves offense that was on display most of the regular season. Chipper Jones hit two-run homers from each side of the plate as part of Atlanta's 12-hit attack. It was Chipper's first two-homer playoff game since his postseason debut in Game 1 of the 1995 Division Series. The first of his two home runs came from the left side off Chicago starter Matt Clement in the fifth inning and the second came in the eighth inning off lefty Mark Guthrie, giving Atlanta a 6-2 lead. Ortiz, coming off three days of rest, held the Cubs to two earned runs on seven hits over five innings. Eric Karros was the hitting star for the Cubs, launching two solo home runs, one in the sixth inning and one in the eighth inning. Sosa almost tied the game in the bottom of the ninth, but his drive off John Smoltz fell into Andruw Jones' glove on the warning track. Game 5 showed just why the Cubs would be moving on. For the second time in the series, Wood turned in a dominating performance (8.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 2 BB, 7 K), shutting down the Braves for a 5-1 Chicago clincher in front of 53,775 fans at Turner Field. During the NLDS, Wood allowed just seven hits over 14.1 IP against the NL's best regular-season offense. The lone Atlanta run came on a controversial play in the sixth inning. Rafael Furcal raced home from second base on a ball hit by Sheffield, who returned after missing Game 4 with a bruised hand suffered in Game 3, that appeared to be caught by a sliding Kenny Lofton in center field. It was ruled a hit. Hampton, pitching on three days of rest, endured a 30-pitch first inning, allowing just one run on a Moises Alou broken-bat RBI single. Alex Gonzalez led off the second inning with a homer to center and Aramis Ramirez hit a two-run home run in the sixth inning to give Wood all the support he would need.

2004 Division Series - Houston 3, Atlanta 2

In their record 10th straight Division Series, the Braves met up with the Houston Astros for the fourth time in the opening round but for the first time failed to take the series. The series was filled with big hits and key pitching, but in the end Houston's big bats proved to be too much. Game 1 saw the Astros pound out four home runs, leading to a four-run third inning and a three-run fifth inning in a 9-3 win. The run support was more than needed for Roger Clemens. The Braves had chances to break the game open early against Clemens, but he escaped jams in each of the first four innings. Jaret Wright started for Atlanta and allowed a career-high three homers in 4.1 innings of work. Andruw Jones provided a highlight with his eighth career postseason home run off Clemens in the fifth inning. The Braves evened the series in dramatic fashion, taking Game 2, 4-2. Trailing 2-0 entering the seventh inning the Braves scored on a Rafael Furcal single in the seventh and added one in the eighth on Adam LaRoche's double to tie the game. John Smoltz went 3.0 strong innings starting in the eighth, just the second time as a reliever he had gone that many innings. He also added a single in the ninth-- his 12th career postseason hit, a record for pitchers. The game remained tied 2-2 until the bottom of the 11th inning when Rafael Furcal hit a game-winning, two-run homer off Dan Miceli to give Atlanta a 4-2 win. Roy Oswalt started for Houston, allowing just one earned run on eight hits over 6.1 IP. Mike Hampton started for the Braves and gave up just two earned runs on four hits before leaving in the seventh inning with tightness in his left forearm. The Braves bullpen combined to go 4.2 scoreless innings. The series shifted to Houston for Game 3 and saw the Astros go up a game with an 8-5 win. Braves starter John Thomson was forced to leave after four pitches when he left with a re-injured left oblique muscle. Paul Byrd made his first career postseason appearance in relief and allowed four earned runs on seven hits in 4.1 IP, the big blow coming on Carlos Beltran's two-run, third-inning home run. The Astros stretched the lead to 7-2 on Morgan Ensberg's sixth-inning, two-run double off Tom Martin. Brandon Backe allowed two runs over 6.0 IP, his only mistake coming on Johnny Estrada's fourth-inning homer. Andruw Jones hit his second homer of the series, a three-run shot off Russ Springer in the eighth. Game 4 was an example of the season-long resolve the Braves displayed. Facing Roger Clemens (5.0 IP, 2 ER) for the second time in the series, the Braves rallied from a three-run deficit entering the sixth inning to win 6-5. Atlanta jumped out 2-0 in the second on an Andruw Jones RBI single and an Adam LaRoche RBI groundout. The Astros came back with five runs in the bottom of that inning, highlighted by a three-run homer by Craig Biggio. The Braves tied the game in the sixth on LaRoche's first career postseason homer, a three-run shot off Chad Qualls. The game turned in to a battle of the bullpens after Russ Ortiz left (3.0 IP, 7 H 5 ER), but the Braves pen took charge. Over the last 6.0 innings, they allowed six hits and no runs. The game-winner came in the top of the ninth inning after Rafael Furcal was hit by a Russ Springer pitch with two outs. Furcal then stole his second base of the day and came around to score on J.D. Drew's RBI single. John Smoltz picked up the win by going the final 2.0 innings and getting Jeff Kent to ground into the Astros third double play of the game to end it in the ninth. The series returned to Atlanta for the deciding Game 5 and the Houston bats certainly showed up. The Astros pounded out 17 hits and scored 12 runs in a 12-3 rout. The game was 3-2 entering the sixth inning, but the Astros added one in the sixth, five in the seventh and three in the eighth to pull away. Roy Oswalt picked up the win on short rest, going 5.0 IP and giving up two earned runs. Houston scored a NLDS-record 36 runs in the series and hit an NLDS-record 11 home runs. Carlos Beltran was the series star hitting .429, and he went 4-for-5 with two home runs and five RBI in Game 5. Jaret Wright got the call for Atlanta but gave up four runs in 5.1 IP. Chipper Jones went 2-for-5, but wound up without an RBI in the series. Rafael Furcal had another strong game with his second homer of the series and two more hits, pushing him to .381 (8-for-21) for the NLDS. Andruw Jones hit .526 (10-for-19) in the series.

Extending their Division Series streak to a record 11 consecutive appearances, the Braves took on the Wild Card winner Houston Astros. Both teams featured a slew of youngsters that would play prominent roles in the series - the final play of the classic fourth game would feature a rookie from both squads - but the Astros would ride good old fashion pitching from their aces and overachieving offense from a normally dormant lineup to defeat the Braves for the second consecutive season in the Division Series. Houston's Morgan Ensberg put on a Game 1 clinic, tying an Astros record with five RBI and helping his squad to a 10-5 win in the opener. The game, which was to feature the pitching duel between Tim Hudson and Andy Pettitte, turned into a slugfest in which the pitching pair combined to allow eight runs. Reliever Chris Reitsma allowed four earned runs and recorded just one out in the eighth inning, helping Houston to a win that tied starter Andy Pettitte with John Smoltz for the most wins in postseason history (14). Smoltz took back his title as the postseason's winningest pitcher in Game 2, hurling seven innings of one-run ball for his 15th playoff win. Houston's 1-0 lead in the first inning was short-lived, as the Braves scored three runs in the second and two more in the third en route to a 7-1 win. Rookie backstop Brian McCann scalded a three-run homer off Roger Clemens in his first career postseason at-bat to put the Braves up 3-1 - a lead from which they would never look back. Andruw Jones went 3-for-4 and Adam LaRoche doubled in a pair of runs, while the bullpen was solid. The Astros went with 20-game winner Roy Oswalt against Jorge Sosa (making his first career postseason appearance) for Game 3, a 7-3 Astros victory that unraveled for the Braves in one inning. While the two starters had similar lines - both allowed three runs and walked two - it was a dreadful seventh inning that led to the Braves demise. With Sosa pulled, Reitsma continued his rough Division Series showing by allowing Craig Biggio's third double of the game followed by an infield single to speedster Willy Taveras. Reitsma gave way to lefty John Foster, but slugger Lance Berkman nailed Foster's first pitch for a home run, and youngster Joey Devine finished the job by allowing a run of his own - all of this without the Braves registering an out. The loss spoiled the second consecutive three-hit night for Braves home run king Andruw Jones, who raised his average to .636 in the series. On just three days' rest, the Braves sent Tim Hudson to the mound against Brandon Backe in a Game 4 that would become a classic. It looked like nothing but a Braves steamroll early on as Adam LaRoche continued his tear, bombing a grand slam in the fourth followed by an Andruw Jones sacrifice fly that chased the Astros' starter. Hudson left with a 5-1 lead, and when McCann hit his second homer of the series to put Atlanta up 6-1, it seemed wrapped up. But when the normally reliable Kyle Farnsworth came in to close out the game in the eighth inning, he allowed a grand slam to Lance Berkman and a two-out, solo homer to light-hitting Astros catcher Brad Ausmus in the bottom of the ninth to tie the game at 6-6. The two teams went on to essentially play another entire game, with both pitching staffs combining for eight innings of scoreless ball that saw the Braves miss opportunities with runners in scoring position five times, including loading the bases with one out in the 14th inning. In the bottom of the 18th, Houston rookie Chris Burke drove Devine's pitch over the left-field wall for a game-ending solo homer that gave the Astros their second consecutive Division Series win against the Braves. The series loss wasn't without some highlights for the Braves, who continued their excellent fielding from the regular season and committed no errors in the four-game set. Adam LaRoche went 4-for-8 (.500) with six RBI in the series and Andruw Jones went 8-for-17 (.471) with three doubles and five RBI.

2010 Division Series - San Francisco 3, Atlanta 1

After a five-year playoff drought, the Braves entered the 2010 postseason as the National League's Wild Card Champion. They faced off against the eventual World Series Champion San Francisco Giants in four games of the opening round. Atlanta's offense managed only two hits as they fell 1-0 to Game 1 starter Tim Lincecum in his first career postseason start. The game's only run came after Giants catcher Buster Posey singled to left and stole second on a controversial "safe" call, only to score on a Cody Ross single. The Braves took Game 2 in 11 innings at AT&T Park after overcoming a three-run deficit. Outfielder Rick Ankiel hit a go-ahead solo home run into McCovey Cove and Kyle Farnsworth tossed a scoreless bottom of the 11th to preserve the 5-4 victory. The win came at considerable cost, however, as closer Billy Wagner suffered a season-ending oblique injury in the 10th inning. The Braves fell 3-2 in Game 3 at Turner Field after holding a 2-1 lead through eight innings. Giants starter Jonathan Sanchez pitched a no-hitter through six innings as the Braves committed three errors in the game. Pitching on three days' rest, Braves starter Derek Lowe took a no-hitter into the sixth inning of Game 4, but Braves relievers could not hold the 2-1 lead. The Giants plated two in the seventh that proved to be the game winners, ending the series. The 3-2 loss in Game 4 proved to be manager Bobby Cox's final game of his career. Giants players and coaches joined the Turner Field fans to give him a loud ovation as he left the field.

The series was only the second postseason series in which each of the first four games were decided by one run. The only other postseason series in Major League history to begin with four straight one-run games was the 1972 World Series, when Oakland A's defeated the Cincinnati Reds in seven games with all but one game (Game 6) being decided by one run.

HANK AARON

FULL NAME: Henry Louis Aaron
BATS: Right THROWS: Right

BORN: 2/5/1934 in Mobile, Alabama
YEARS WITH BRAVES: 1954-74

OUTFIELD 44

One of the greatest hitters of all time, Hank Aaron was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for a percentage of .978. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982. In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron re-wrote baseball's record book. He holds more Major League batting records than any other player in the game's history. Among his records are Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime (2,297); Most Extra-Base Hits, Lifetime (1,477); and Most Total Bases, Lifetime (6,856). Aaron also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364), and home runs (755), third in games (3,298) and hits (3,771), fourth in runs (2,174, tied with Babe Ruth), 10th in doubles (624), 12th in singles (2,294) and is tied for 18th in years of service (23). His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before a sellout crowd of 53,775 at Atlanta Stadium. The pitch came in the bottom of the fourth inning, the Los Angeles Dodgers leading 3-1, with a 1-0 count and Darrell Evans waiting on first. Al Downing threw a fastball at 9:07 p.m. that Hank sent over the left field fence. Reliever Tom House caught the ball in the Braves' bullpen and brought it to Aaron in the home plate celebration. On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HRs and 30 SBs in the same season) in 1963. Aaron played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to Milwaukee for outfielder Dave May and minor leaguer Roger Alexander at the end of 1974. Aaron retired as a player two years later. Aaron was first scouted by Dewey Griggs of the Milwaukee Braves during an Indianapolis Clowns tryout. The Braves eventually were able to strike a deal and beat out the Giants for Aaron's services. In 1952 he was assigned to the Eau Claire, Wisconsin, team of the Northern League. He was the unanimous choice for the Northern League's Rookie of the Year while only playing in 87 games (.336, 9 HR, 61 RBI, 116 hits and 89 runs). In 1953 he was promoted to the Jacksonville Tars, where he became the first African-American player in the South Atlantic League. Aaron won the batting title (.362) and led the league in RBI (125), runs (115), hits (208) and finished second in home runs (22) and earned the league's MVP award. He began his Major League career in 1954 when a spring training injury forced Bobby Thomson out of the Braves' lineup. In his debut he struck out twice, grounded out, hit into a double play and fouled out. Aaron hit his first home run off Vic Raschi on April 23, 1954. He became the second youngest player to win a batting title (.328) in 1956 and the second youngest to collect his 1,000th hit, off Sandy Koufax in 1959. On June 12, 1967, Aaron recorded his 2,500th hit and achieved his 3,000th hit on May 17, 1970. His 2,000th RBI came on July 3, 1972. During his career, Aaron had a 20-year string of 20 or more home runs. After turning 35, he hit 245 home runs and from the ages 35 to 39 he hit at least 34 home runs a year. Over his 23-year Major League career, he averaged just 63 strikeouts a year, with his highest strikeout total being 97 in 1967. He hit .300 or better in 14 seasons, won the NL home run crown three times and tied for a fourth, led the league in RBI four times and won three Gold Gloves. Aaron hit his 755 home runs off 310 different pitchers, including 12 Hall of Famers. He hit the most off of Hall of Famer Don Drysdale (17), the most in the month of July (152), the most against the Cincinnati Reds (97) and the most in the first inning (124). Aaron hit 400 solo home runs and hit seven of his 755 as a second baseman and had three pinch-hit home runs. He had only one three-homer game, at San Francisco on June 21, 1959. Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office on October 7, 1976, for a 13-year tenure as a Braves Vice President and Director of Player Development. In that position, he oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back NL MVP awards in 1982-83. Since December of 1989, he has served as Braves' Senior Vice President. In February of 2000, Aaron replaced the late Pee Wee Reese on the Hall of Fame Veterans Committee.

MANAGER 6

Known as the consummate "players" manager, Bobby Cox treated everyone with respect and dignity. He spent 29 seasons as a Major League skipper, including 25 seasons in two stints at the helm of the Braves. His 2,504 wins rank fourth all-time and include a franchise-best 2,149 victories with the Braves and 355 with the Toronto Blue Jays. Cox posted an overall career record of 2,504-2001-3 (.556). The 2010 campaign marked his final season on the bench, as Atlanta went 91-71 and claimed the National League's Wild Card Championship. Cox won his 2,500th game on September 25, 2010, at Washington. The 2010 campaign was Cox's 15th with 90 or more wins, tying him for second all-time in 90-win seasons with Hall of Fame skipper Joe McCarthy (15) and putting him one behind the legendary John McGraw (16). Cox and McCarthy are the only managers in Major League history to compile six 100-win seasons. On June 8, 2009, Cox posted his 2,000th Braves victory, making him just the fourth skipper in big-league history to claim 2,000 wins with one team, joining Connie Mack (Athletics), John McGraw (Giants) and Walter Alston (Dodgers). On September 29, 2004, in the season's final home game, Cox earned his 2,000th career victory with a 6-4 decision over the New York Mets. He became just the ninth skipper in big-league history to reach that lofty milestone. Cox won 15 division crowns in his career, including 14 straight in Atlanta that led to five pennants (1991, 1992, 1995, 1996 and 1999) and one World Championship (1995). He had a string of 15 consecutive winning seasons from 1991 to 2005, tying him with Al Lopez and Earl Weaver for third place all-time behind Joe McCarthy (20) and Sparky Anderson (17) for consecutive winning campaigns. Cox was voted the Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America four times (1985 with Toronto and 1991, 2004 and 2005 with Atlanta). The Sporting News, in a poll of his peers, honored Cox as the league's top skipper seven times with the Braves and eight times overall. No other manager has won the Sporting News award more than three times since the magazine started the balloting in 1936. In 1991 the Associated Press named him Major League Manager of the Year, as he became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985. Cox brought the city of Atlanta its first major professional sports championship in 1995 when the Braves defeated the Cleveland Indians, four games to two, in the World Series. The victory also marked the first time a franchise had won a World Series in three different cities. Cox managed the Braves from 1978 to '81, compiling a 266-323 record and laying the groundwork for the club's National League West title in 1982. He began a four-year tenure as Toronto's manager in 1982, lifting a habitual last-place team to within one game of attaining a World Series berth in 1985. Cox returned to the Braves as general manager in October 1985 and oversaw a farm system which set the foundation for great success. He added the field managing responsibilities on June 22, 1990, then devoted all his time to those duties when the Braves named John Schuerholz as General Manager in October of that year. When Braves owner Ted Turner fired Cox in 1981, Turner was asked at the press conference who was likely to be the next manager. "It would be Bobby Cox if I hadn't just fired him," Turner said. "We need someone like him around here." Cox was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 2011.

TOM GLAVINE

FULL NAME: Thomas Michael Glavine
BATS: Left THROWS: Left
HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 205
BORN: 3/25/1966 in Concord, Massachusetts
YEARS WITH BRAVES: 1987-2002, 2008
NUMBER RETIRED: 2010

PITCHER 47

Tom Glavine won 305 regular-season games in his 22-year Major League career. But it was his eight innings of one-hit, shutout baseball in Game 6 of the 1995 World Series that accounted for his most-significant victory. The Braves won 1-0 to capture the first championship in Atlanta history, and Glavine was named the series Most Valuable Player. The left-hander arrived in Atlanta in 1987 and, after four years of growing pains, became a consistent big-time winner. Glavine won 20 or more games each year from 1991 to 1993 and earned the first of his two Cy Young awards in 1991, going 20-11 with a 2.55 ERA. His second Cy Young came in 1998 on the strength of a 20-6 record and a 2.47 ERA. He finished second for the award in 1992 and 2000 and third in 1993 and 1995. From 1993 to 1999, the Braves featured arguably the game's top starting rotation - led by Glavine, Greg Maddux and John Smoltz. Over that seven-year stretch, Atlanta won six division titles and the National League Championship Series in 1995, 1996 and 1999 in addition to the 1995 World Series. Glavine also pitched in two other Fall Classics - in 1991 and 1992. Following the 2002 season, Glavine signed as a free agent with the New York Mets. He won his 300th game on August 5, 2007, with an 8-3 verdict over the Chicago Cubs, becoming the 23rd pitcher and just the sixth left-hander to reach that plateau. Glavine returned to Atlanta in 2008 before ultimately retiring after the 2009 season. On the Braves' career lists, Glavine ranks fourth in strikeouts (2,091), fourth in wins (244) and tied for eighth in shutouts (22). He had five 20-win seasons, leading the NL or tying for the lead each time. Glavine's lifetime ledger was 305-203 with a 3.54 ERA, and his 682 games started ranked 12th on baseball's all-time list when he retired. Possessing excellent control, the 10-time All-Star was a master at mixing up the speed of his pitches and locating them on - or just off - the corners of the strike zone. Glavine was a career .186 batter and won four Silver Slugger Awards.

GREG MADDUX

FULL NAME: Gregory Alan Maddux
BATS: Right THROWS: Right
HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 170
BORN: 4/14/1966 in San Angelo, Texas
YEARS WITH BRAVES: 1993-2003
NUMBER RETIRED: 2009

PITCHER 31

Greg Maddux became the most-dominant pitcher in baseball during his 11 seasons with the Braves from 1993 to 2003. On the heels of winning his first Cy Young Award in 1992 with the Chicago Cubs, Maddux signed with the Braves as a free agent and proceeded to win three more Cy Young awards in a row. With Atlanta, Maddux led the National League in ERA four times (1993, 1994, 1995 and 1998) and in wins twice (1994 and 1995). His franchise-record 1.56 ERA during the 1994 season was the second-lowest in the major leagues since Bob Gibson's 1.12 mark in 1968, the last year of the elevated pitcher's mound. Maddux had arguably his finest season in 1995, posting a 19-2 record with a 1.63 ERA while leading the league with 209.2 innings pitched, 10 complete games and three shutouts and helping the Braves win the World Series. Maddux finished fifth, second and fourth in Cy Young Award voting in 1996, 1997 and 1998. On the Braves' career lists, Maddux ranks second in ERA (2.63), fifth in strikeouts (1,828), sixth in wins (194) and 10th in shutouts (21). The diminutive right-hander known as "Mad Dog" featured pinpoint control and uncanny late movement on his fastball. After leaving Atlanta, Maddux had a second stint with the Cubs and subsequently played for the Los Angeles Dodgers and San Diego Padres. He won 15 or more games for 17 consecutive seasons (1988-2004) - the only pitcher in major league history to do so. Upon his retirement, Maddux ranked eighth all-time with 355 wins and 10th with 3,371 strikeouts. He won a record 18 Gold Gloves, including 10 with the Braves. He was an eight-time All-Star and the NL starting pitcher in 1994, 1997 and 1998. Maddux was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in July 2009. At the induction ceremony, manager Bobby Cox remarked: "I get asked all the time was he the best pitcher I ever saw? Was he the smartest pitcher I ever saw? The most competitive I ever saw? The best teammate I ever saw? The answer is yes to all of those."

THIRD BASE 41

Inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1978, Eddie Mathews was the only player in franchise history to play for the Braves on the Major League level in Boston, Milwaukee, and Atlanta. He was signed in 1949 by Johnny Moore at the age of 17 and by the age of 20 became the Braves' regular third baseman. During his Hall of Fame career spanning 17 years, Mathews appeared in three World Series, was a nine-time National League All-Star, and led the majors in home runs in 1953 (47) and '59 (46). He twice finished second in the National League MVP voting, in 1953 to Roy Campanella and in 1959 to Ernie Banks. Mathews averaged slightly over 30 home runs per season during his career, and 14 times he hit 20 home runs or more. Ten times he hit 30 or more, and four times he hit 40 or more. His franchise records include: most RBI in a season since 1900 (135 in 1953), tied for most consecutive games with an RBI (8 in 1954), most career walks (1,444), most home runs on the road (30 in 1953), and tied with Hank Aaron for most home runs in a season with 47. In 1967 the Braves traded Mathews to Houston, where he reached the 500 home run level. He was subsequently traded to the Detroit Tigers late in the year to help with the pennant chase and appeared in his third World Series. Eddie finished his playing career with Detroit in 1968. Mathews returned to Atlanta in 1971 as a coach under Luman Harris and replaced him as manager in 1972. Eddie managed into the 1974 season, accumulating a record of 149-161-1 in 311 games for a .481 winning percentage. In his only full season as manager in 1973, the Braves placed fifth with a record of 76-85-1. Eddie was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 1999.

DALE MURPHY

FULL NAME: Dale Bryan Murphy
BATS: Right THROWS: Right
HEIGHT: 6-5 WEIGHT: 215
BORN: 3/12/1956 in Portland, Oregon
YEARS WITH BRAVES: 1976-90

OUTFIELD 3

Murphy was the Braves' No. 1 (and fifth overall) draft pick in 1974. Originally signed as a catcher, he was moved to the outfield by Manager Bobby Cox in 1980. The move helped, as Murphy averaged just under 30 HRs and just under 90 RBI from 1980 to 1990. During those 11 years, Murphy won back-to-back league MVP awards in 1982 and 1983, appeared in seven All-Star games (leading all players in votes in 1985), won five Gold Gloves, and appeared in 740 consecutive games from September 26, 1981 through July 8, 1986. Murphy's 1983 season of 36 home runs and 30 stolen bases made him only the second player in franchise history to reach the 30/30 mark. He was also just one of six players in the 1980's accomplish the feat. Murphy's 15-year career with the Braves came to an end on August 4, 1990, when he was traded to Philadelphia. The Braves received Jeff Parrett, Jim Vatcher and Victor Rosario for Murphy and Tommy Greene. Murphy played in only 18 games with Philadelphia in 1992 due to knee problems and appeared in 26 games for the Colorado Rockies in 1993 before retiring. Murphy ranks second in Atlanta history in home runs (371), RBI (1,143), hits (1,901), runs (1,103), and games (1,926). He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 2000.

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium (1966-96)

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium was home to the Braves from the 1966 season through the 1996 season. Ground was broken on April 15, 1964, and the first game was played on April 9, 1965, when Milwaukee defeated Detroit, 6-3, in an exhibition game before the 1965 regular season. The first regular-season game was played April 12, 1966, vs. Pittsburgh, and the final regular-season contest was played September 23, 1996, vs. Montreal. The final game took place on October 24, 1996, when New York defeated Atlanta, 1-0, in Game 5 of the World Series. Approximate cost of the stadium was $18 million. The park was completed in 20 months, eight for design and 12 for construction. Architects were two Atlanta firms: Heery and Heery and Finch, Alexander, Barnes, Rothschild and Paschal. General contractor was the Thompson and Street Company of Charlotte, NC, and Atlanta. The stadium dimensions were 330' down each line, 402' in centerfield and 385' to the power alleys. The stadium wall was 10' and the ballpark had a capacity of 52,769 for baseball. The stadium was also used by the NFL's Atlanta Falcons and was used as the baseball venue for the 1996 Olympic Games.

Turner Field (Opened 1997)

Grand Opening – April 4, 1997. Braves defeated the Chicago Cubs, 5-4.

History – The 1996 Olympic Stadium, built just south of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, was retrofitted into a baseball only, open-air, natural grass facility between September, 1996, and April, 1997. AFC Stadium was imploded in August 1997 and the site is now a parking lot.

Location – Between Ralph David Abernathy on the north, Hank Aaron Drive on the east, Bill Lucas Drive on the south and Pollard Blvd. on the west. It's very near the junction of I-75/85 and I-20.

Seating – Official capacity for Turner Field is 49,586. Three levels supported by four concourses. A cross-aisle walkway divides the lower concourse. Field level and dugout seats are below the cross-aisle, the terrace level above it. The second level, the Golden Moon Casino Level, includes 58 private suites, three party suites and the 755 Club, the ballpark's private membership club. The third, or upper level does not go all the way around the park, thus providing fans a view of the downtown Atlanta skyline.

Playing Field – Prescription Athletic Turf, featuring a state-of-the-art mechanical drainage system and hybrid Bermuda grass. The turf for the playing field is grown in an area below the scoreboard beyond the center field wall.

Field Dimensions – The stadium dimensions are 335' down the leftfield line, 400' to center field, 330' down the rightfield line, 380' to the leftfield power alley and 390' to the rightfield power alley.

Entry Plaza – The main entry to Turner Field, it was built after 35,000 seats and part of the track and field complex of the Olympic Stadium were removed. The plaza features statues of Hank Aaron, Phil Niekro and Ty Cobb, monuments of the Braves' retired numbers, a huge video screen that shows the Braves game, a video wall broadcasting every other major league game in progress, photo kiosks, a Kids Zone, a retail store and a variety of concession stands.

Parking – 8,500 official spaces. The lot on the site of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium contains an outline of the playing field, including markers for home plate, the bases and the location of Hank Aaron's record-breaking 715th home run.

Scoreboard and Sound System – Turner Field features the largest high-definition video display in the world. The Mitsubishi Diamond Vision, installed in 2005, measures 71', 4" by 78', 8" and integrates live video, scoring information and animations onto a single full-color screen to display game content in vivid detail. Also installed in 2005, a Daktronics LED fascia video display wraps around Turner Field between the Terrace and Lexus levels. The 1,085' by 42" display interacts with the massive high-definition board, but also features its own video, graphics, animation, game information and advertising. Turner Field also employs ScorePAD Sports, Inc's state-of-the-art STADIUMnet baseball scoring system. This system provides a wide variety of in-game, season, and career information on each baseball player in the game. The speakers in each seating section are independently controlled.

Scouts Alley – Located just off the Entry Plaza, it contains life-size visuals of notable Braves and their original scouting reports, interactive skills and educational activities for youth and the Braves Museum and Hall of Fame, a project of the Atlanta History Center and the Braves.

Sky Field – Sky Field is a 23,000 square-foot baseball-themed attraction located above the leftfield club level at Turner Field. The distance is estimated at 435 feet from home plate and 80 feet above the field. A ball has yet to reach Sky Field during a regulation Braves' game.

SunTrust Club – In 2008 the Braves unveiled the SunTrust Club, an exclusive seating area with it's own private lounge. Season ticket holders in the SunTrust seats enjoy Braves games from a whole new perspective. Some seats are 43' from homeplate – 17' closer than the pitching mound. Included in Club's membership package is valet parking, a private entrance, a 4,000 square foot lounge with gourmet dining and impeccable service, plush seating, flat panel televisions throughout the seating area and in-seat food and beverage service.

Disabled Seating – The entire ballpark is wheelchair accessible and compliant with the Americans with Disabilities Act. More than one percent of the seating capacity is allocated for disabled seating.

Caray served as the play-by-play announcer for seven seasons (1998-2004) for Chicago Cubs games on WGN. The 2004 Illinois Sportscaster of the Year, Caray's baseball resume also includes one season as the radio play-by-play announcer for Minnesota's Orlando (AA) affiliate in 1990, two years (1991-92) broadcasting the Atlanta Braves and three campaigns (1993-95) with the Seattle Mariners.

Caray spent five years (1996-2000) as a member of the Fox Network's Saturday baseball coverage, including three years as a studio host.

He is the third generation of Carays to serve as a play-by-play announcer, after his father Skip and grandfather Harry, who was the play-by-play voice of the Cubs from 1982 to 1997. A member of the Hall of Fame, Harry spent 53 seasons as a major league broadcaster. On May 13, 1991, the three generations of Carays worked together on a Chicago Cubs/Atlanta Braves game.

Chip's broadcast career also includes nine seasons as the television play-by-play voice of the NBA's Orlando Magic and stints calling both University of Florida and Florida State University football and basketball games for the Sunshine Network.

Caray graduated from the University of Georgia in 1987 and began his career with weekend TV sports anchor stints in Panama City, Fla., and Greensboro, NC. He and his wife Susan have four children: Summerlyn, Christopher, Stefan and Tristan.

Joe Simpson

Joe Simpson is in his 21st season as an Atlanta Braves broadcaster. This year marks his sixth season calling games on Fox Sports South and SportSouth.

Simpson played professionally for 11 seasons, beginning in 1973 when he was drafted by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the third round. He joined the Seattle Mariners in 1979 before being traded to the Kansas City Royals in 1983. An outfielder and first baseman throughout his professional career, he retired from the California Angels organization following the 1984 season. He had his best season in 1979, when he hit .283 in 120 games for the Mariners. Simpson worked as an analyst on Seattle Mariners telecasts for five years before joining Turner Sports in 1992. Simpson was named "Georgia Sports Broadcaster of the Year" in 1995.

An All-American outfielder and first baseman at the University of Oklahoma, Simpson was born in Purcell, Oklahoma.

Joe and his wife Kathy live in Marietta, Ga. They have two children, Meg and Gabe.

Rules of Interest

Player Limits: Forty until Opening Day, when the number of players must be reduced to 25 until Sept. 1, when it becomes 40 again.

Determining Batting Average: Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

Determining Earned Run Average: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, divide the total by the number of innings pitched.

Determining On-Base Percentage: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

Determining Slugging Percentage: Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at-bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitches, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

Determining Fielding Average: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

Determining the Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings of the closest opponent.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streaks: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out.

Qualifying Marks: To qualify for the batting championship, a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances. To qualify for Earned Run Average leadership, a pitcher must have at least 162 IP.

Doctored Bat: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be ejected from the game and suspended three days. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

Relief Pitchers' Save Rule: A pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions; 1) He's the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and 2) he's not the winning pitcher, and 3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or c) he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Major League Service: A full year of service in the Major Leagues is 172 days.

Rookie Rule: Not more than 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service or on the disabled list.)

Day / Night Game: Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at or before 5:00 p.m. and is delayed by rain or for any other reason it shall still be considered a day game. However, both games of a twi-night doubleheader shall be considered night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same day and separate admissions are charged, they will be counted as one day game and one night game and will not be considered as a doubleheader.

Disabled Lists

15-Day Disabled List: Minimum period of inactivity is fifteen (15) days. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

60-Day Disabled List: The minimum period of inactivity is sixty (60) days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of forty (40) players.

Regulation Game

Regulation Game: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because 1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or 2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

Tie Game: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the league standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

Suspended Game: A game becomes a suspended game if it is terminated for any of the following reasons: 1) a curfew imposed by law; 2) a time limit permissible under league rules; 3) light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club (including automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment); 4) darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on. No game called because of a curfew or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game (see above). A game called under provision 3 or 4 shall be a suspended game at any time after is starts. Since 1980, if weather forces the termination of a legal game while an inning is in process, it will become a suspended game if either of the following two conditions exists: 1) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the game and the home team has not scored, or 2) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or taken the lead. If a legal game is tied when called because of weather and neither situation listed above prevails, it is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. If possible, it shall be resumed immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same ground.

A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall be a SUSPENDED game. This rule became effective in 1969. Formerly, the game would have been declared a tie and replayed in its entirety at a later date.

Turner Field Ground Rules
